DEDICATION

With sincere gratitude, the Lock staff dedicates the Lock of 1955 to the memory of the late Dr. Emil J. Viskocil, who through loyalty, thoughtfulness, honesty, and service aided in the progression of Lockport Township High School and the community.

Dr. Viskocil was born and educated in Lockport. While attending Lockport High, he was an enthusiastic participant in many extracurricular activities—track, basketball, and dramatics. During his senior year, he brought fame to L.T.H.S. by winning first place in the state javelin throwing contest, the first in the history of Lockport High to do so.

During his school years, he was very deeply interested in science and knew from the beginning that his true vocation in life was to be that of a doctor. After receiving his bachelor of arts and doctor of medicine degrees at Loyola University, he practiced in Lockport and became a familiar figure, well-liked by everyone because of his sincere attitude toward his work and his wonderful sense of humor.

He was active in many civic organizations—the Lockport Lions, the Loyal Order of Moose, a member of the Perez Council No. 1176 of the Knights of Columbus, past president of the Will-Grundy County Medical Society, vice-president of the Lockport Township High School Board of Education, and a member of that organization for eighteen years.

Dr. Viskocil strove to obtain the best in health, welfare, and education for his community; and his death resulted in the loss of a good friend, citizen, and doctor.

LTHS

Over the years, the Lockport townspeople have seen and will see great changes in Lockport Township High School. Our school has grown from a small Jefferson Street building to a structure covering the entire block, and with the ever-increasing enrollment, problems will continually arise concerning the need for additional building space.

Along with the changes in the size of L.T.H.S., students of today are able to enjoy the advantages and pleasures of: swimming, diving, or splashing during the winter-time in the clear, refreshing water of the indoor swimming pool; cheering the "Porter" teams on to victory under the powerful, illuminating, Athletic Field lights; gathering valuable knowledge and research material from a modern, well-stocked library; eating a piping-hot, substantial lunch in the school cafeteria; and being able to elect those courses which would be most beneficial for them.

Although Lockport Township High School, through its continued growth, changes materially, the character of her students remains the same. A student of Lockport High is:

Loyal to the faculty, who aid him in gaining a well-rounded education, and loyal to the other students.

Thoughtful and considerate of others.

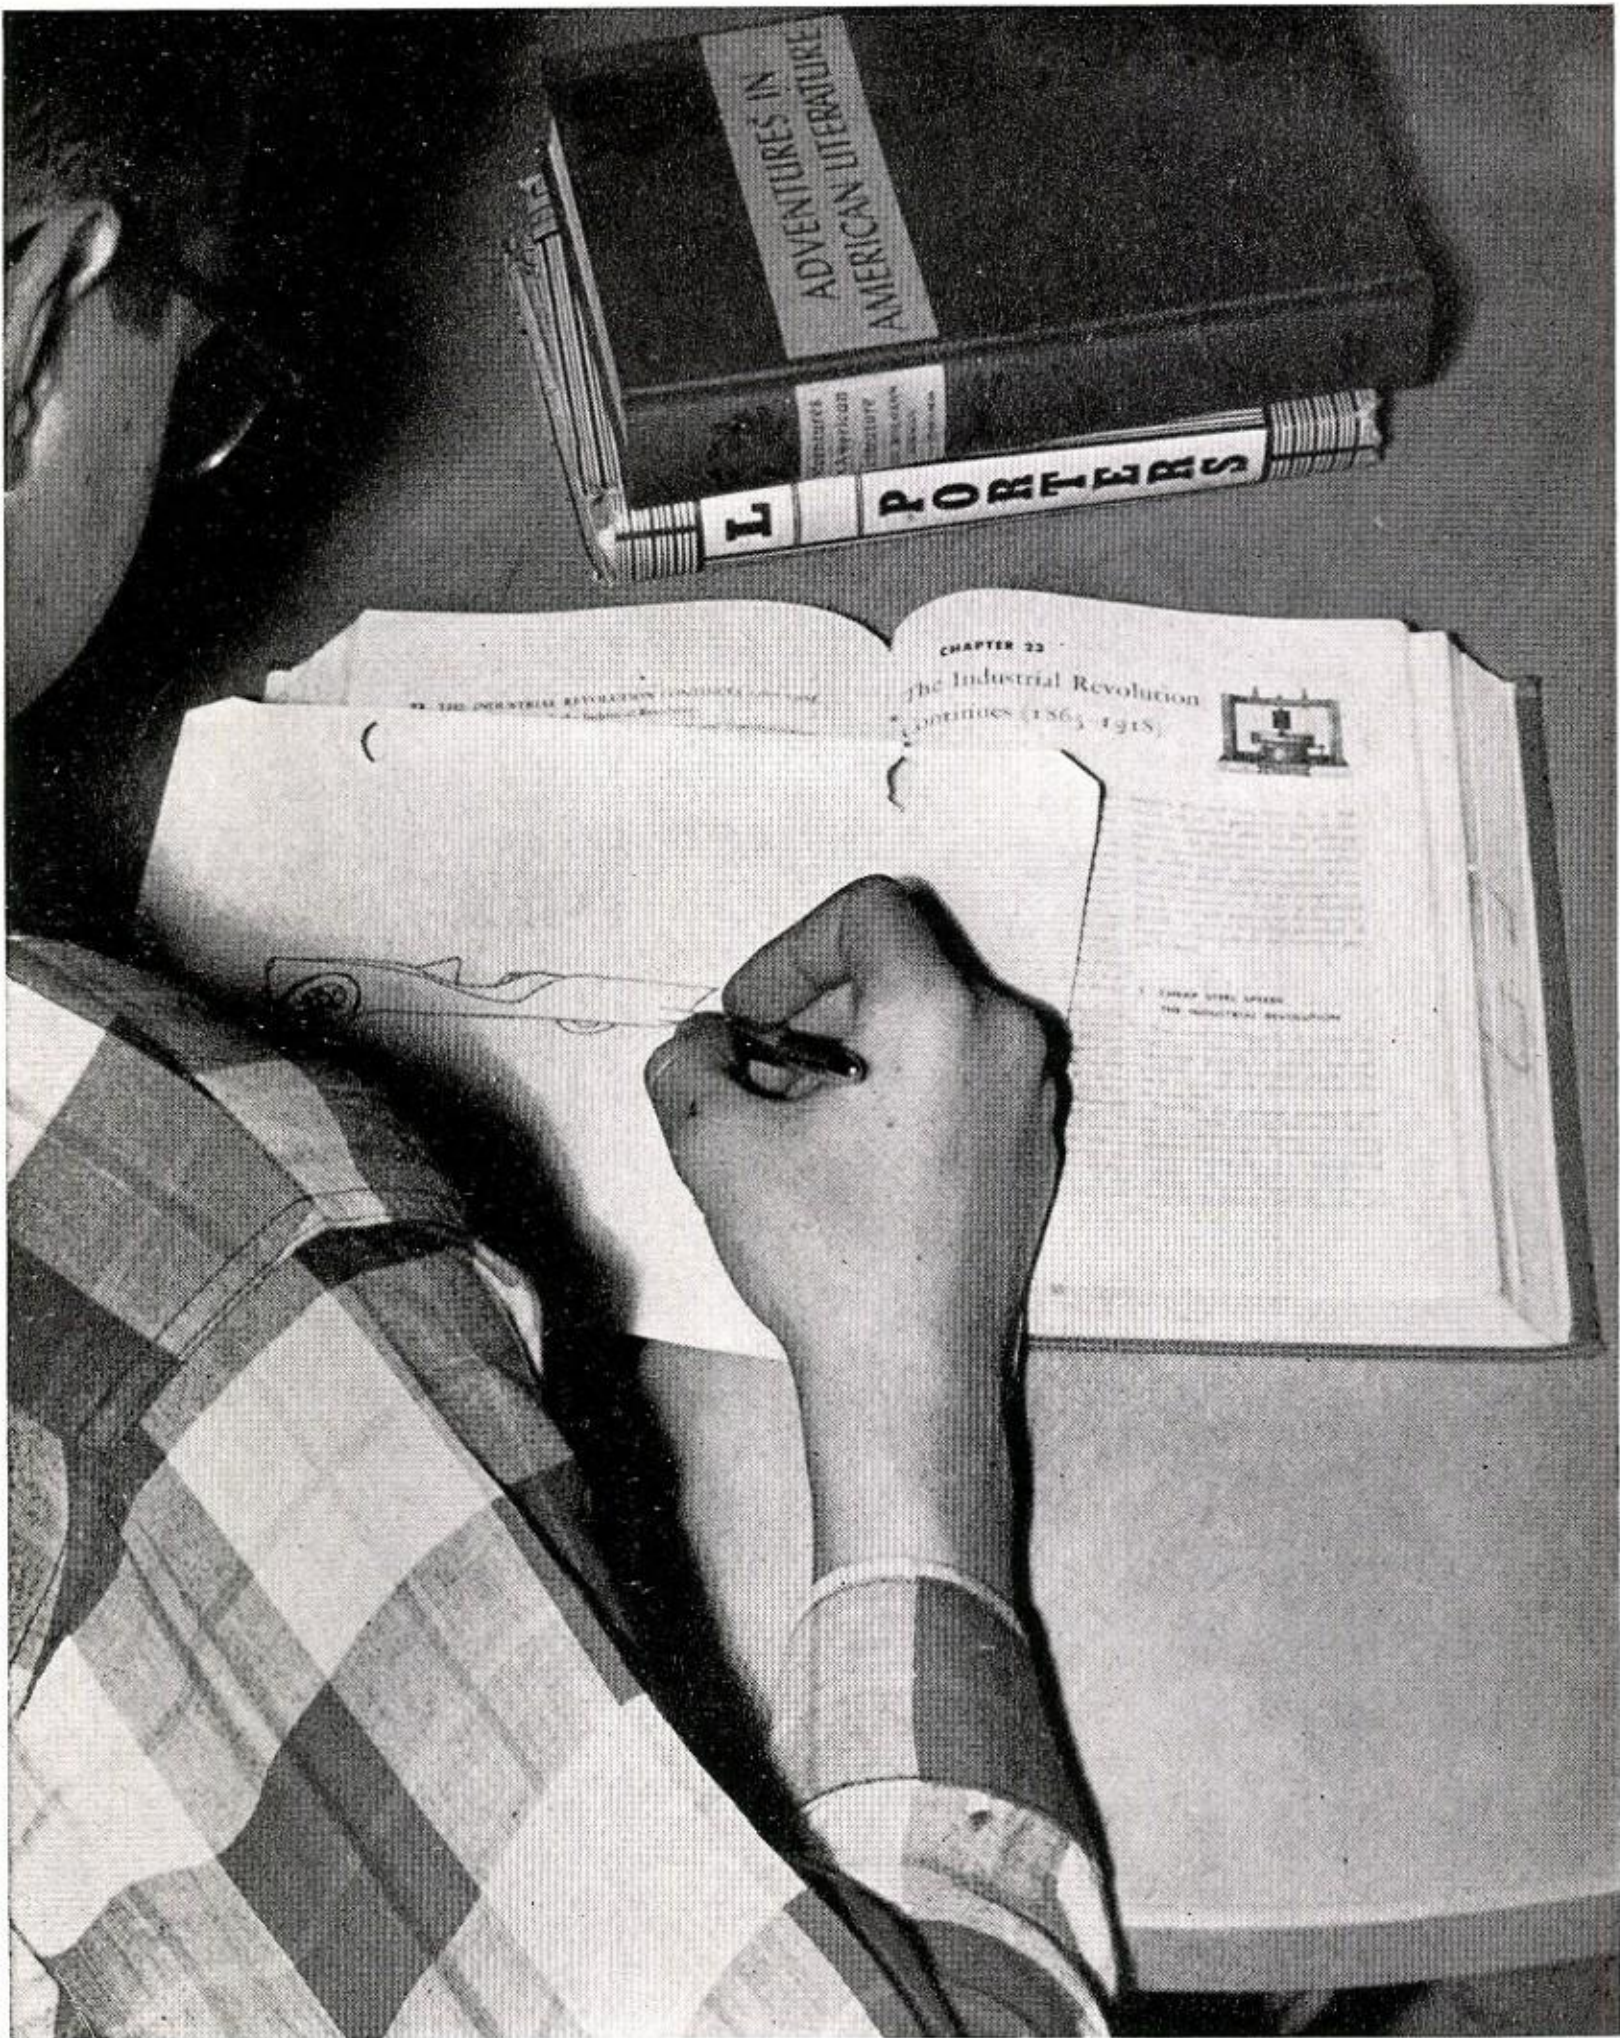

Honest in his actions and dealings.

Serving his school and class.

This is the student who makes Lockport Township High School a school of which to be proud.

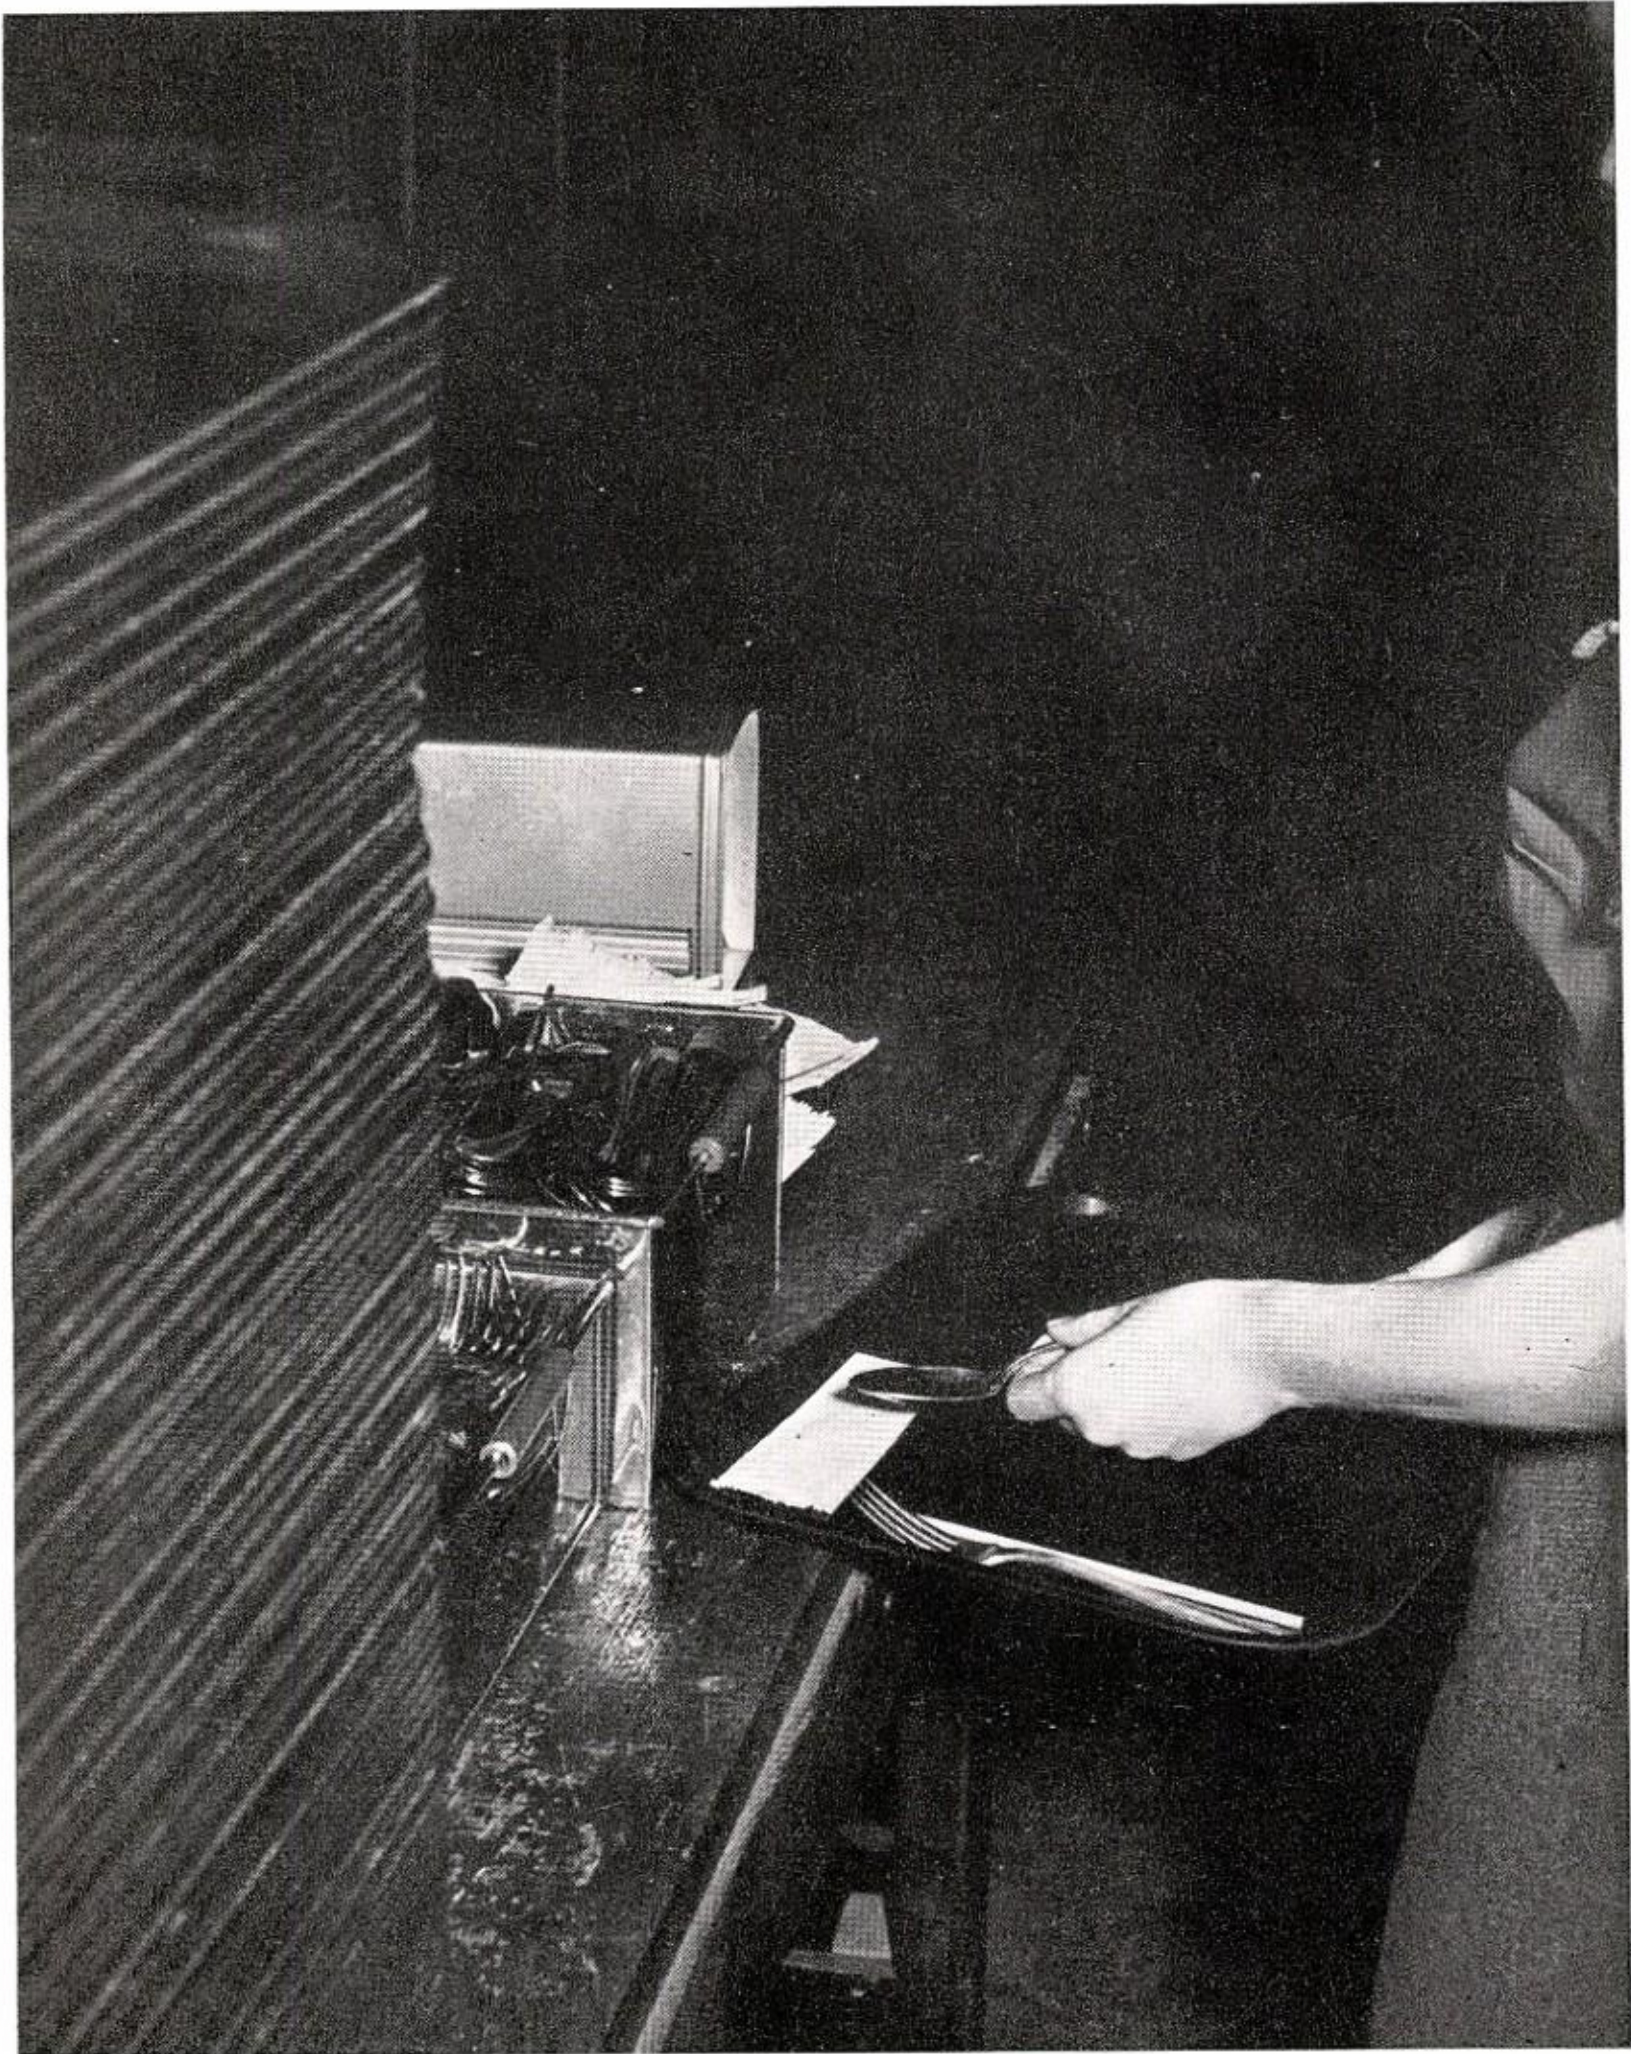

That confusion in the halls . . . no metropolis traffic was ever like this. . . . One minute to go. . . . Will I make it for my next class? . . . Hope I don't get stepped on in the rush.

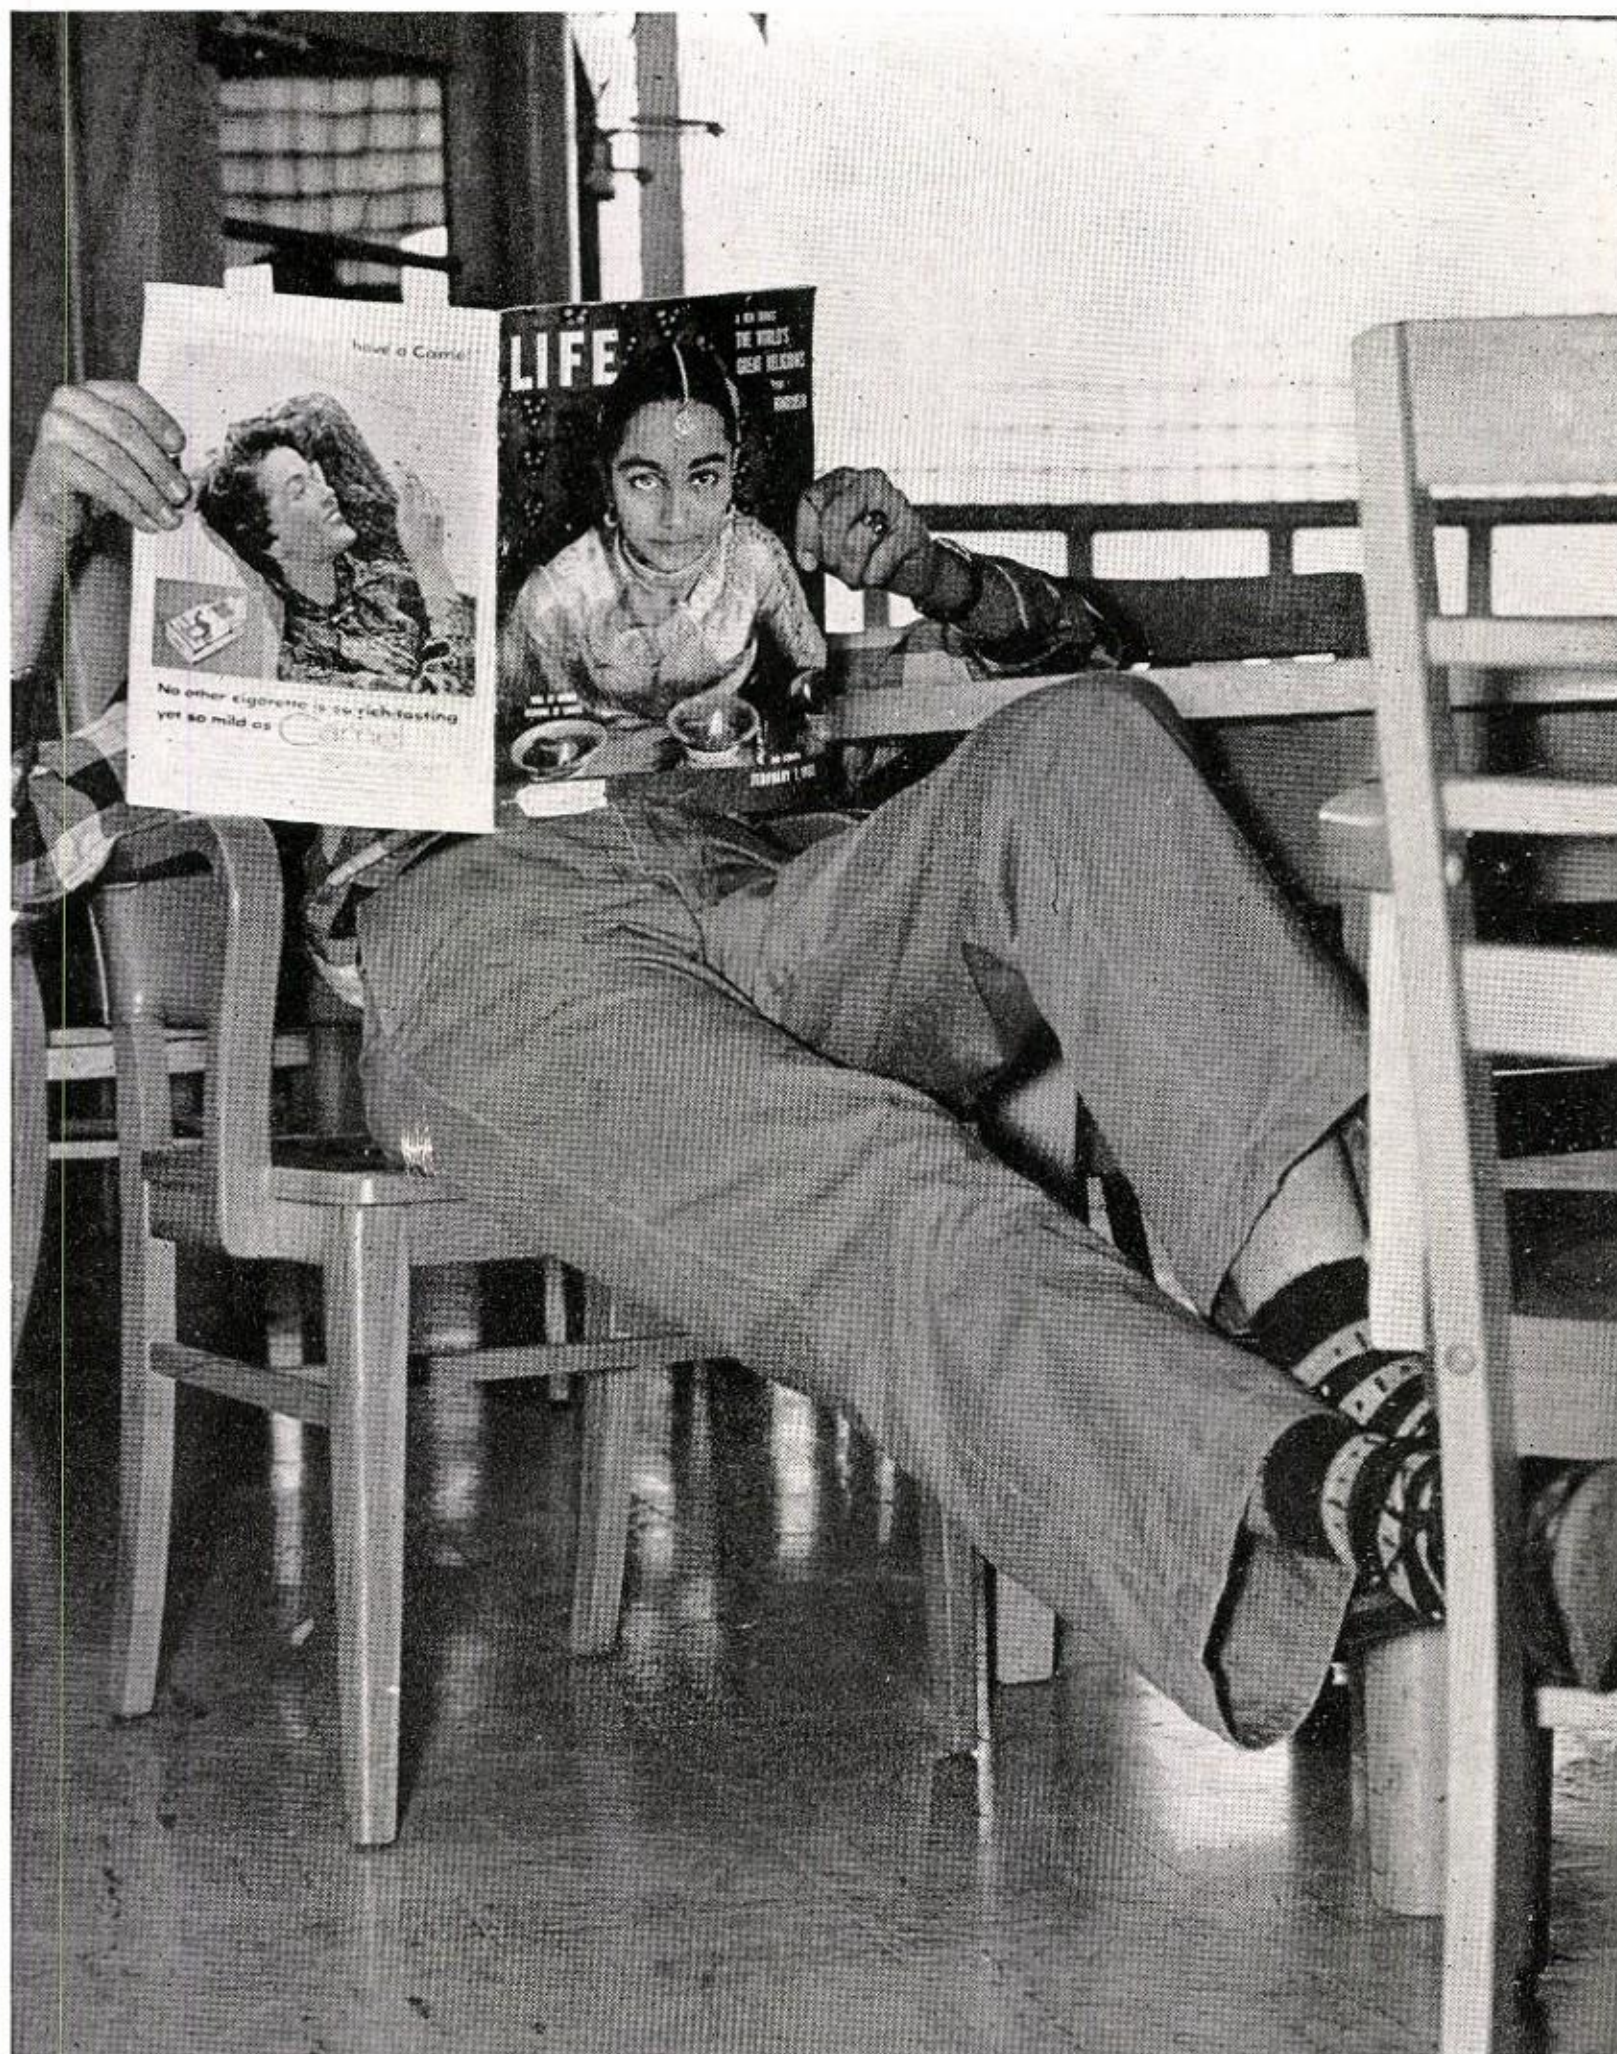

"In my merry jet mobile" . . . a flashy convertible—developing three hundred horsepower. . . . Whow, could I whiz around town . . . friends, green with envy. . . . Oh, no . . . there's the bell and I haven't finished my history assignment!

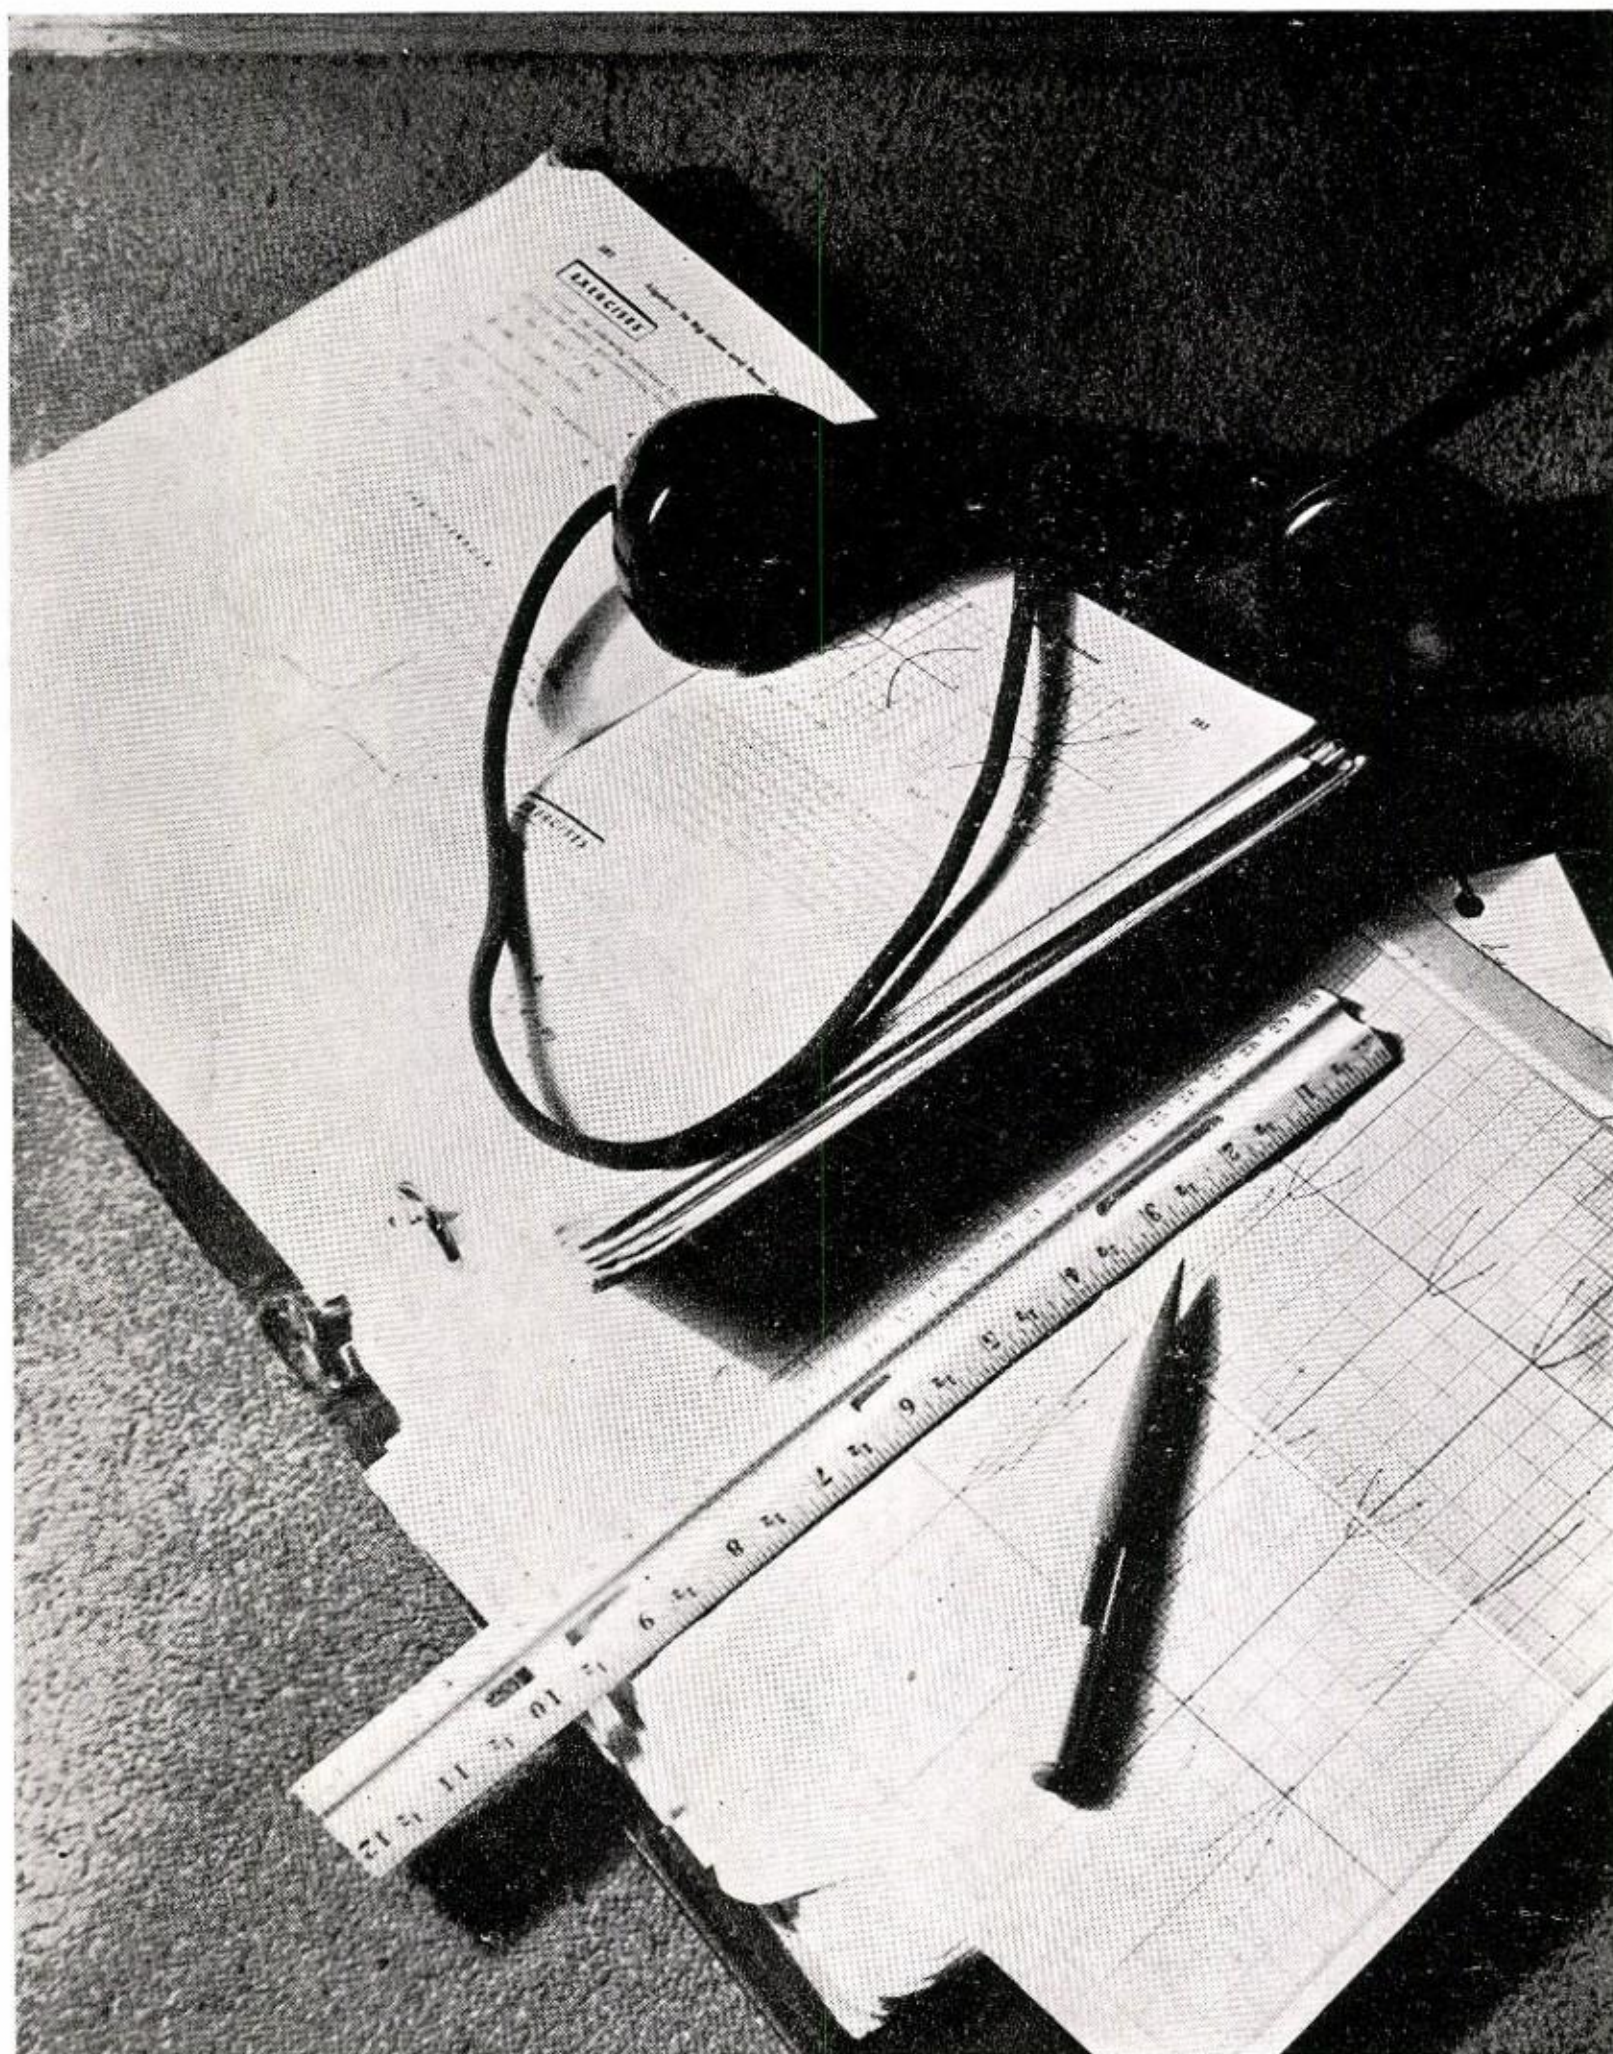

Hurry, pass it back . . . row 2, seat 7. . . . The teacher's giving us the "eye"
. . . here he comes . . . whew, what a relief, he by-passed us. . . . Did she get the note?

First in the lunch line, for once . . . mmm . . . smells good . . . hungry as a bear.
. . . Big spoons . . . must be having "chili" or "soup" today!

Who lurks behind the magazine? . . . An average student attracted by the advertisements and stories or intrigued by the pictures? . . . No, probably just sleeping!

Oh, this algebra . . . sure is rough on the brain . . . stuck on thirteen . . . better call for help . . . Hi—did you get thirteen? . . . Wait a second, I'll get some more graph paper.

"Jeepers," she looks cute tonight. . . . Wonder if she'll go steady? . . . Should I ask her? . . . What if she says no . . . no harm in trying . . . Will you wear my class ring?

Lockport Leader

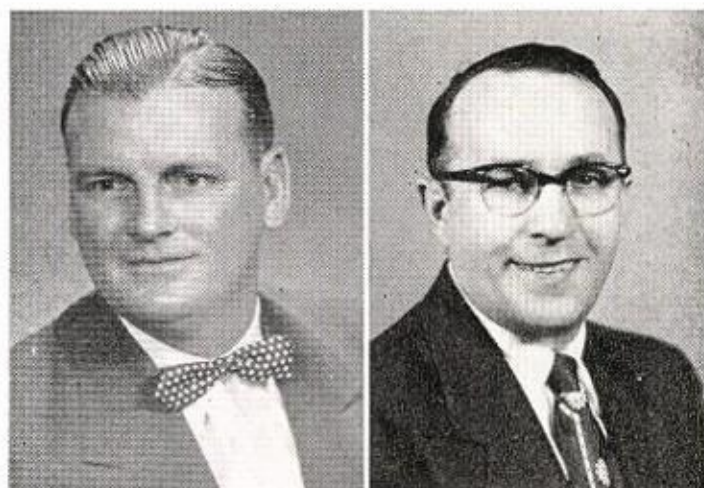

Mr. Louis F. Bottino, our superintendent, has, in his years of teaching, fostered ideas of loyalty, thoughtfulness, honesty, and service not only in athletics but in the classroom and community as well.

In his years as a teacher, coach, principal and superintendent his understanding of young people has promoted these ideas in a manner that has aided students in the classroom, at athletic events, and in the community. Under his guidance these students have become citizens whose lives and actions depict these traits of character.

Saluting the faculty of L.T.H.S. — a well-coordinated group of teachers possessing excellent educational backgrounds, an active participation in civic and church groups, and an exceptional understanding of young people and their problems.

Our faculty is always waiting to advise, help, and serve us whenever an opportunity arises. The teachers show loyalty to the students by their active leadership in the many school organizations and by their constant efforts toward the betterment of the school. They strive to instill the characteristic of honesty in the minds of the students by practice and example. Our attitudes and goals, which are set at L.T.H.S., are developed through the thoughtfulness shown by the faculty's interest in our school life.

To many students the faculty seems to have a stern and forbidding manner, but actually they have another side that is shown in the following pictures.

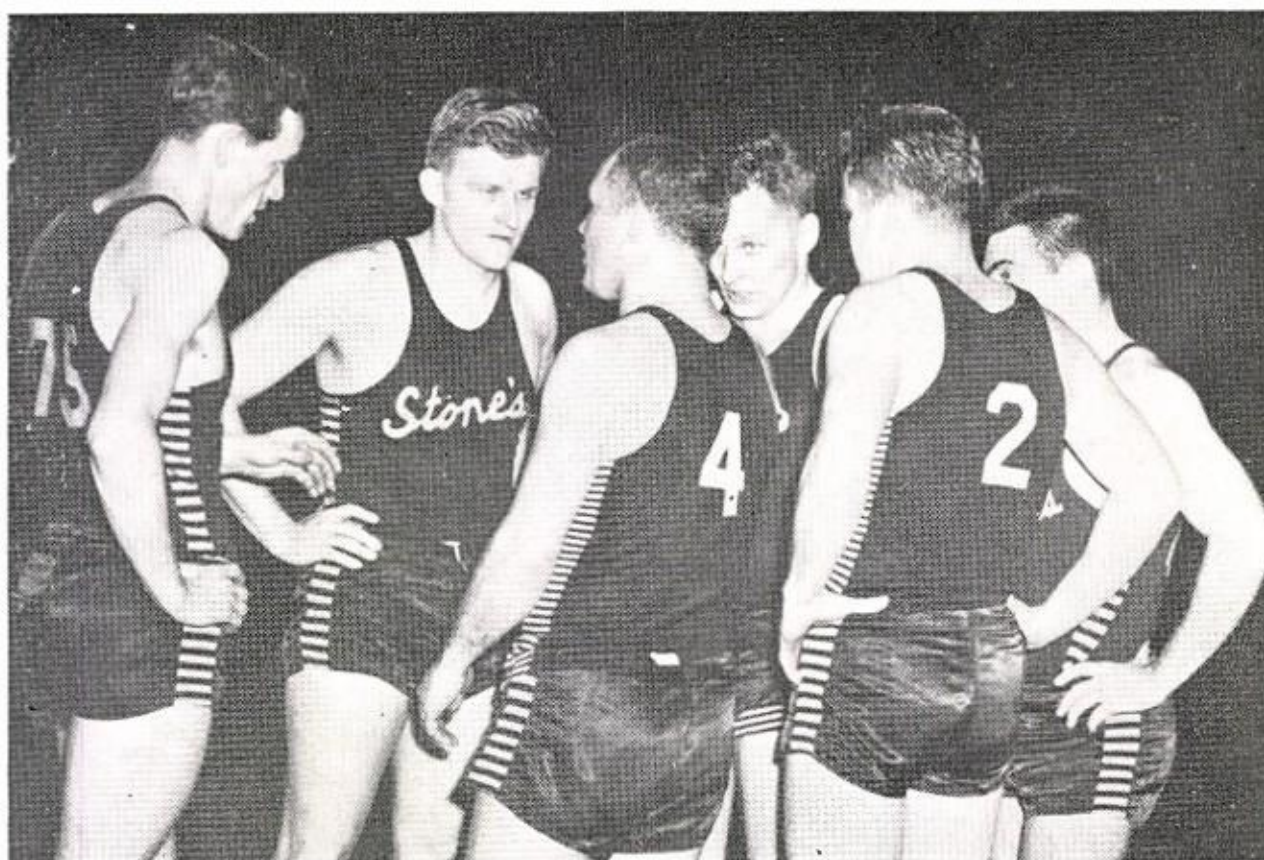

Mr. Flink and Whiskers—A dog's second heaven . . . a kind hand and a warm smile.

Mr. Rutter—Not only a delight to those in detention, but also another Caruso.

Hernando's Hideaway—A place where male faculty members sneak away from it all.

Faculty Cagers—A victory in the making . . . the George Mikans of the school discussing their strategy for the downfall of the unsuspecting juniors.

Mr. Cisler—A brief moment of relaxation . . . these tests . . . a teacher's work never ends . . . Miss Fagan—Spring cleaning . . . a rejuvenation of the card file.

Homecoming Highlights

Highlighting the homecoming festivities was the afternoon parade in which many organizations entered floats designed and constructed by students. Top honors were awarded the G.A.A. and the music department floats for being the prettiest and most clever. Following the parade a pep rally was held at Central School.

The homecoming victory against Le-mont brought to a close a very spirited and successful football season.

Marilyn McCarthy and Mary Brulc depict a popular fad, kilts and knee socks, as they join in the homecoming celebration.

Reigning royally over the homecoming festivities were Queen—Carol Malinoski and attendants—Jane Murray, Donna Williamson, Carol Cooper, and Carolyn Kijowski.

Exemplifying the fine spirit which helped us "Lick Lemont" are Kay Murray and Dorlene Sample. The girls are riding on the G.A.A. float.

Dale Gray and Carol Malinoski, reigning as homecoming king and queen, presided over the game and dance in a style befitting royalty. Attending the royal couple were Donna Williamson, Carolyn Kijowski, Carol Cooper, and Jane Murray.

James Riley, student council co-president, crowned the royal pair while a very exuberant audience looked on.

Planned almost entirely by the Student Council and presented by the entire student body, this first real homecoming will be an incentive for future classes to continue this tradition in an equally fine manner.

The magic moment arrives—Carol Malinoski is crowned by Jim Riley while Dale Gray waits for the royal march to begin.

Yeah Maroon!

Yeah White!

The cheerleaders with new uniforms and some snappy new cheers, drew the approval of the fans. The results were record attendances at games and added enthusiasm from the cheering section.

On December 4, the girls attended a cheerleading clinic at Bloomington, and returned home with ideas for many new cheers.

Mrs. Rose, as sponsor, organized a pep club this year and helped create more interest in cheering. She and the girls did a swell job; we're all proud of them and of the impression they gave to other schools. Nice going, kids!

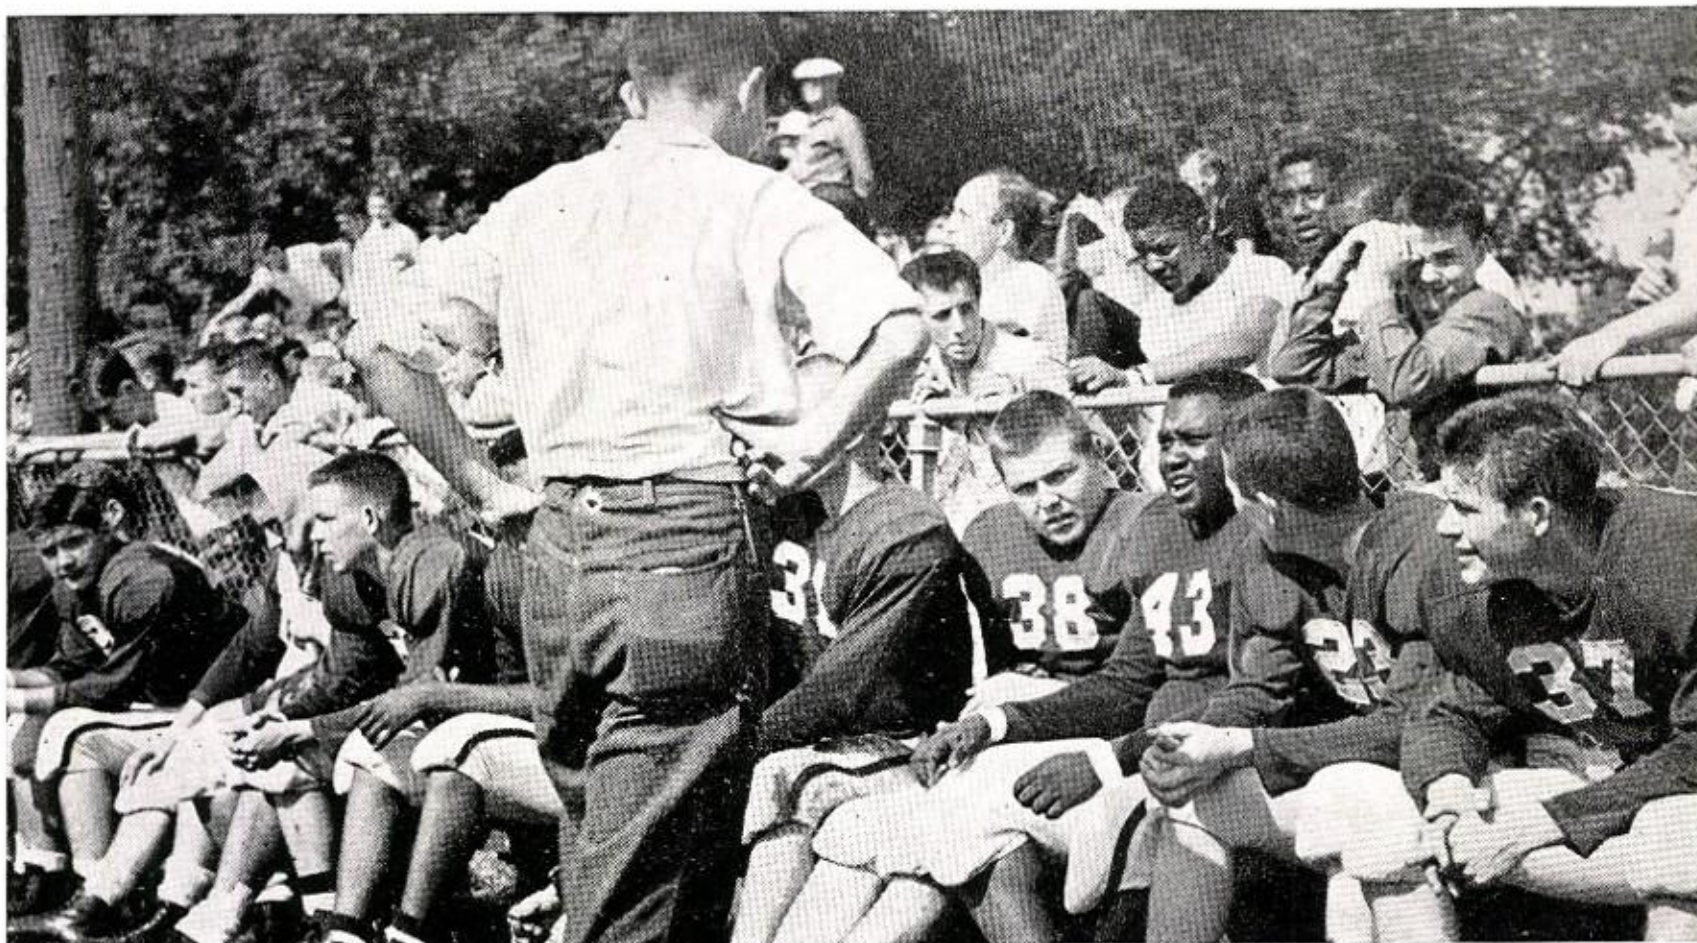

Enthusiastic cheering and shouts of encouragement from the spectators and cheerleaders urge the team to victory.

This unusual shot of football players under the hot sun was taken during the first game of the season at St. Charles. The temperature was 80° in the shade, but Lockport trampled St. Charles 26-0 in spite of the heat.

L.T.H.S. Football

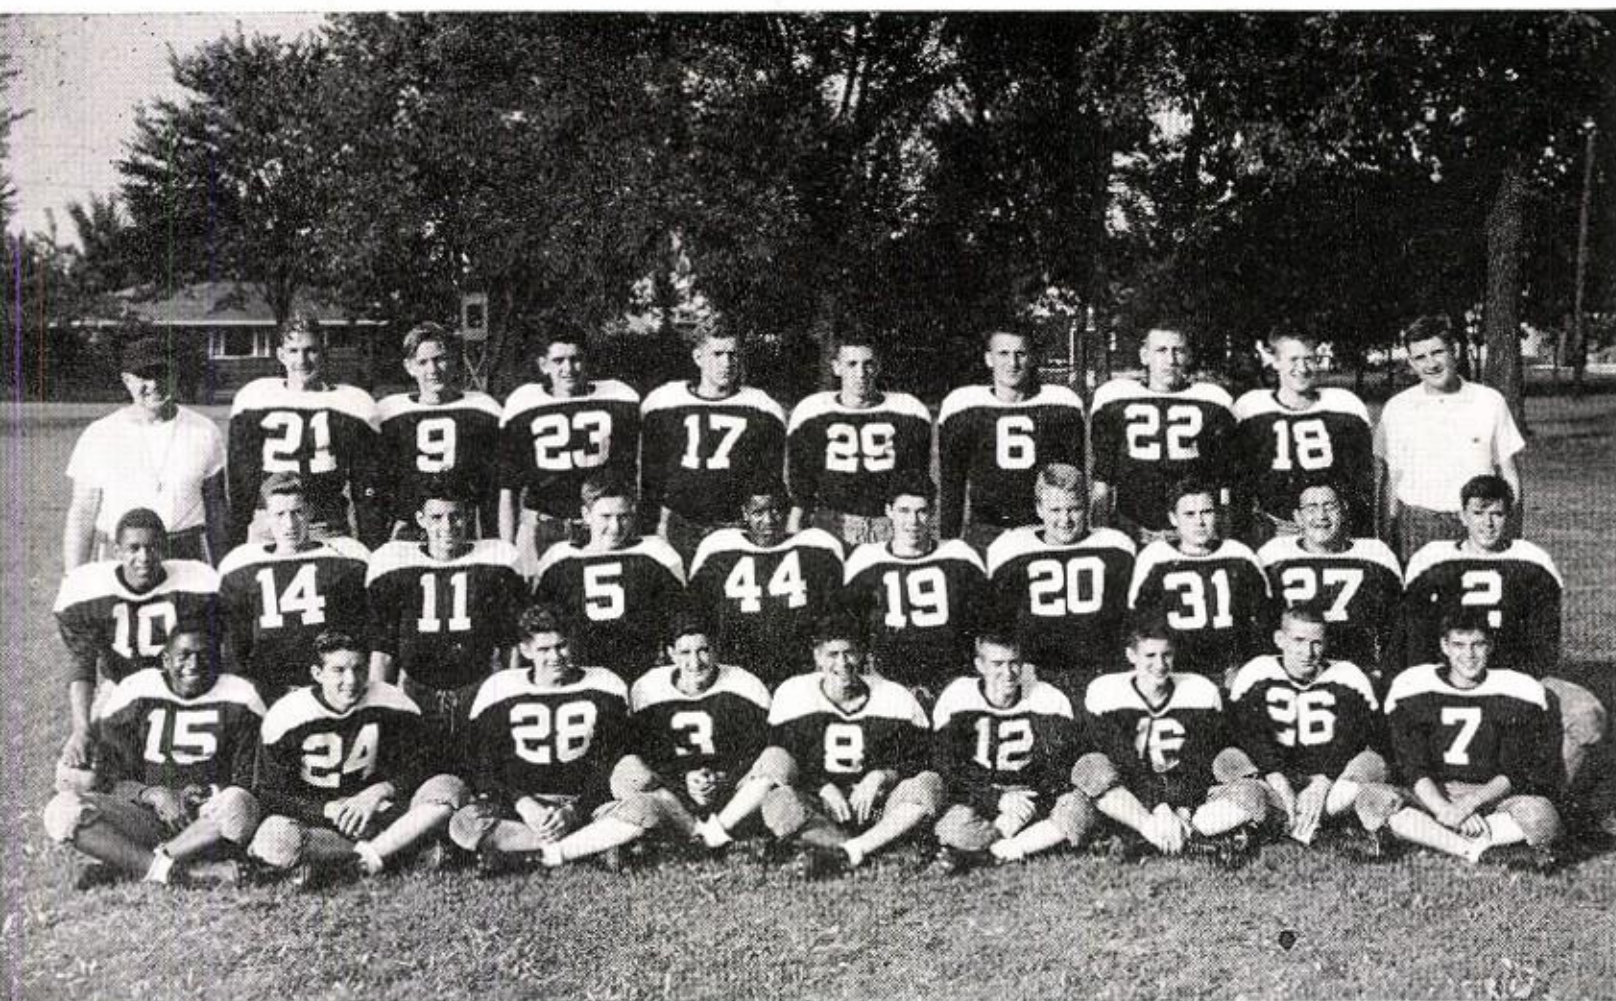

As the final gun sounded at the Lockport-St. Charles game, which we won 26-0, the fans began to wonder if this team would be one of those exceptions to the rule that a football squad can't have a winning season their first year under a new coach. Their hopes increased as the season progressed and the team continued to be a winning one; in fact, it was the best in quite a few years at L.T.H.S. Coach Ed Cisler has had a reputation for being a fine football coach, and it is now easy to see why.

With Tom Haller and Bill Johnson as co-captains, the Porters scored a total of 115 points, while their opponents marked up only 50. Bill Jensen, leading yard gainer, who picked up 213 yards, was also the leading scorer with six touchdowns for 30 points. Allen Stone was successful on 7 of 18 conversions.

After defeating St. Charles and Batavia, we received our first setback from Belvidere. During the remainder of the season, we took victories over Morris, Marmion Military Academy, and Lemont, losing once more to Catholic High. At the end of the season, when the team statistics were tallied, the Porters came out on top in every department. Also four of the players were voted to the Joliet Area All-Star team. They were: Jerry Rutkiewicz, end—first team; Tom Haller, back—second team; Bill Jensen, full back—special mention; and Allen Stone, tackle—honorable mention.

Lockport fans will remember the 1954 team with pride because of the wonderful season that year.

The boys and their parents who attended the 1954 Football Banquet seem to be enjoying themselves on the delicious turkey dinner that was provided by the Athletic Booster's Club.

Annual Football Banquet

The banquet on November 20th honoring the players officially marked the finish of a very successful Lockport grid campaign.

Toastmaster for the evening was William Rutter, who introduced Louis F. Bottino—the first speaker. Remarks were also given by Leo Pryor, representing the Athletic Booster Club; Marion DeSandre, speaking on behalf of the Board of Education; Lester Lindberg, Athletic Director; Lester Johnson, representing the fathers; and co-captains Bill Johnson and Tom Haller, speaking for the players.

Letters were awarded the players by their coaches. The Booster Club presented each senior on the varsity squad a gold football for his fine performance during the season.

Mr. Johnson is pictured here as he is entertaining the audience at the Football Banquet with his speech . . . Coach Cisler congratulates George Smith as he presents him with his varsity football letter.

The Porters, with their ball-control style, caused a great deal of interest this season—and not just from Lockport fans. For one thing, they established an unbeaten home game record, making a total of 11 home victories without defeat. One of these was a 23-14 victory over Thornton of Harvey, giving them their first defeat from Lockport since 1951, the year before the class of '55 entered high school. The important thing about the 1954-55 record, however, is that the Porters won 21 games and lost only 5.

As captain Tom Haller emerges from a symbolic paper basketball before the Reavis game, the 1954-55 basketball season is officially begun.

Successful Season

With Tom Broderick in the background, Bob VanDeven goes for a lay-up shot during the first Joliet game. The Porters overcame a Joliet first quarter lead to win by a score of 55-46.

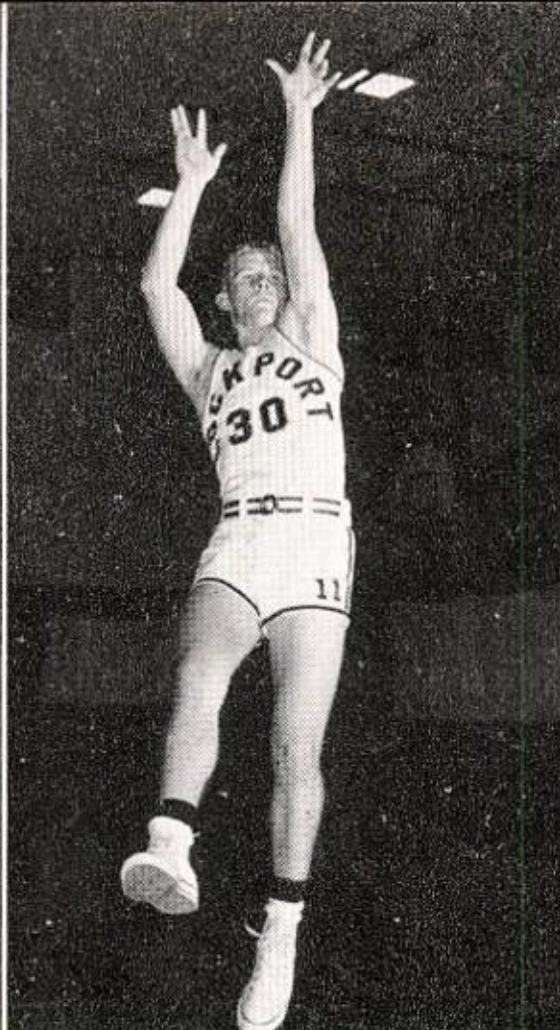

In South Suburban League play, the Porters led in defense for the second consecutive year. That is one of the main reasons they won 12 of 15 conference games, earning a share of the South Suburban title for the first time since Lockport joined the league.

At the Pontiac Holiday Tournament, Lockport received the third place trophy. Previously, the Porters had run up a 9-game winning streak; they extended this to 11 games before they were edged out by Alton in the semi-finals.

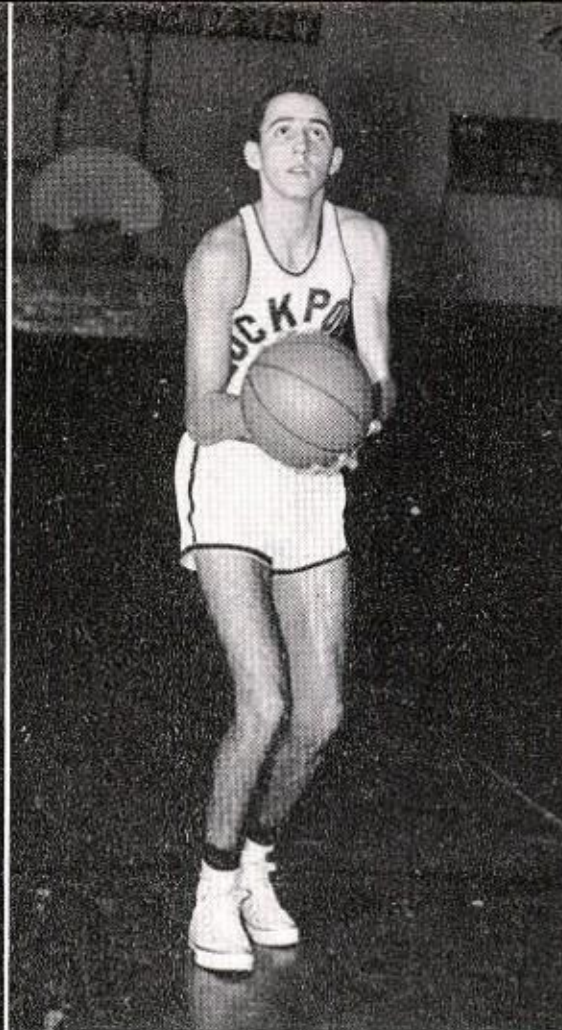

Another important first is that this is the first time in the school's history that Lockport has downed Joliet and also Catholic High twice during the same season.

Our Varsity Team

There is no set rule that makes one team successful and another unsuccessful, but rather a combination of things. A good coach who knows how to keep his players in condition and who can set up effective plays doesn't help if none of the players follow his directions. A group of boys who are excellent players individually cannot win without teamwork.

But a team that has a good coach and co-operative players, along with one more important factor—the will to win—is the one that can overcome great obstacles and win games.

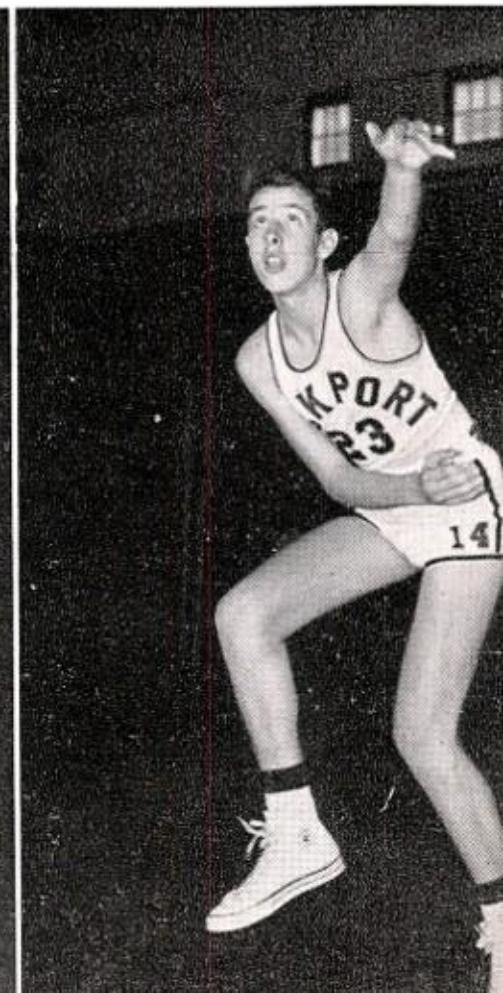

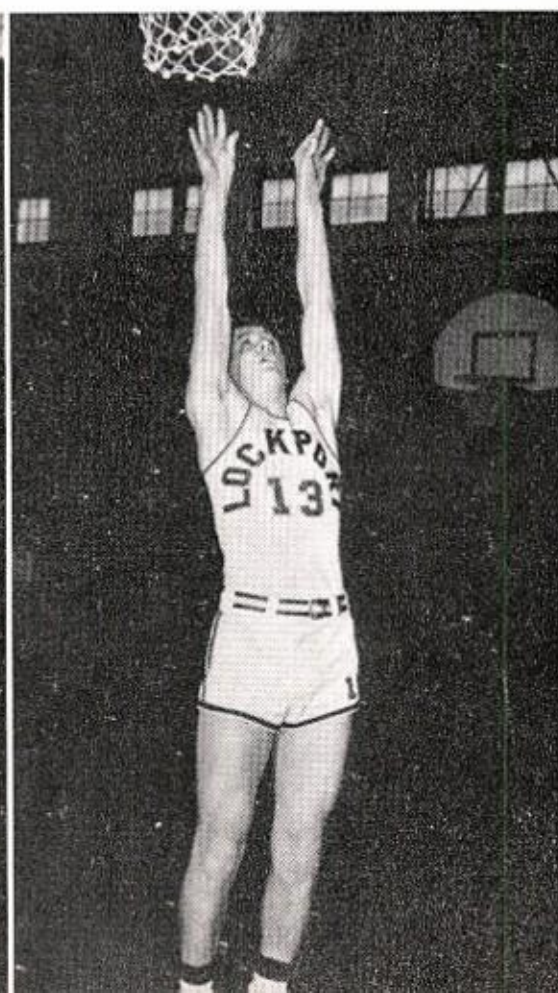

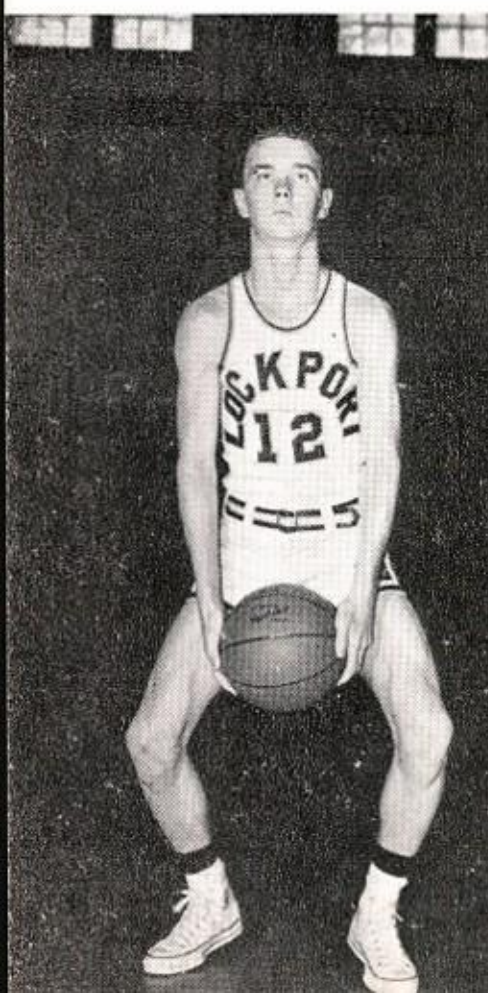

That is the kind of team to be proud of. That is the kind of team the Porters are.

Portermite Season

The fighting spirit and determination of the Portermite, despite a 3 won-17 lost record, keenly showed the desire and interest of these boys to play basketball and be a part of their team.

The experience gained by participation in these games will be a backlog of experience for the time these boys will make up the varsity team of L.T.H.S. At an assembly program on April 13th awards were presented to the following players: Richard Adamson, Harold Ayers, Roger Bolattino, Norman Borman, Edward Burke, Bart Carey, Gary Horton, Harold Huwaldt, Ronald Kevish, Sam Mitchell, John Mikula, Ken Norton, Robert Pearson, Joe Pesavento, Elmer Schroll, Bernell Sims, Fred Steinman, L. L. T. H. S. Swimming Teams

The first meeting of the 1954-55 swimming team was called by Coach Beseman on November 8th. This was an important day for the hopeful swimmers who attended.

At that time, they didn't know that Lockport's varsity swimming team would place third in the South Suburban League, or that the frosh-soph team would also place third in their division. Also in the South Suburban League, Manny Mickel lacked only one-tenth of a second to break the present varsity league record for the 50 yard free style. He was entitled to attend the state meet.

This is only the second year that swimming has been offered as a competitive sport in Lockport; we can all be proud of the fine record of our swimming team this season.

Tennis and Wrestling

The newly organized wrestling team created quite an interest this year. Under the direction of Coach Walters, the basic fundamentals of the sport were taught. It is expected that an even greater interest will develop as more people become familiar with wrestling.

When Coach Beseman issued a call for the tennis team, twelve boys turned their attention to representing L.T.H.S. on the tennis court. A number of meets were scheduled in addition to the District and Conference meets at the end of the season.

Golf Coach Hill had a better than average team this year. For one thing, quite a few of last year's team returned to play again this year. The high point of the golf season came when the team defended their inter-city championship, that was won last year by defeating Joliet and Catholic High.

Track also had a successful season this year. Coach Frank Rogers did a great job of training his boys. This was the first year since he has been coaching track, incidently, that there were enough boys who tried out so that he could enter someone in every competition. Keep up the good work, fellows.

Our Goal Attained

Beginning our first high school year, we, as timid freshmen, entered the portals of L.T.H.S., finding new friends among the upperclassmen, teachers, and fellow classmates. We can still recall our dean, Mr. Flink, enumerating the rules and regulations of the school in the introductory assembly on September 9, 1951. After receiving our schedules, we searched and finally found our classrooms and met our teachers.

The completion of a new addition to the school containing an up-to-date library and two study halls highlighted the second semester of our sophomore year.

During our junior year, the Times and Lock were published not only by the senior class as in former years, but by a staff composed of members of all four classes of Lockport High. The reason for this change was to prepare the underclassmen for the future positions they would hold on these staffs. Members of our class participated in the Lincoln Day program, the Junior Play, "No Moon Tonight," and carried out the plans for the Junior-Senior Prom, "Holiday for Strings."

Our senior year has been filled with many activities which we shall never forget—choosing invitations for graduation, participating in the Christmas and the Senior Play, and attending the Junior-Senior Prom and Picnic. We are also especially proud of this year's athletic teams which made such a fine showing. The school spirit was shown not only at the games but also in the many other activities of the school.

As we leave to take our place in life, we will be forever grateful for the responsibilities, opportunities, and the preparation that Lockport Township High School has given us.

Juniors -- Our Goal In Sight

After two years as underclassmen we suddenly found ourselves juniors, and for the first time began to realize that we were the class of '56. Could graduation be so near? All paths were not easy, however, and we soon found that many responsibilities as well as added privileges awaited us.

One of the highlights of our junior year was the presentation of our class play, "Brother Goose," on the nights of November 18 and 19. Full houses greeted the players at both performances.

Who could ever forget those two nerve racking days spent in the library taking junior tests? The tests were prepared by the University of Illinois to determine our fitness for various occupations and professions.

As Christmas approached we were eagerly awaiting the arrival of our class rings. They came just before the holidays and served as another reminder that we were steadily marching on toward graduation.

The second semester found us excitedly trying to find new ideas for the Junior Prom on May 21, which we wanted to be a bit "special" for the seniors who would soon be leaving us.

The seniors, in turn, entertained us at a picnic, closing the year with an unforgettable day of fun.

A sextet of junior girls entertaining at the homecoming dance. . . . The junior homecoming float portraying the downfall of the Lemont Indians.

Our Worth Proven

September 7, 1954, ushered in a new phase of our high school careers. No longer freshman, our worries of upperclassmen and their elevator tickets were soon replaced with thoughts of our coming responsibilities.

To direct our class activities we elected the following students: Robert Hill, president; Buist Walker, vice-president; Ken Barone, secretary; Barbara Fletcher, treasurer.

Some of our sophomore boys undertook the responsibility of aiding the varsity basketball team to a rousing 21-5 won and lost record. The varsity football team also claimed some of our talented sophomores.

Our Frosh-Soph team was urged on to victory by our two lively cheerleaders, Barbara Fletcher and Charlotte Grant.

The sophomore girls worked diligently to build up points in the many G.A.A. sports this year.

We are also proud of the many sophomores who made the honor roll. Through their scholastic endeavors they have proven themselves worthy of this honor.

We are looking forward to our junior year when we will be upperclassmen and have the opportunity to develop our talents even more than we did our sophomore year.

Freshmen -- Our Journey Begun

The green has faded, the fear is gone. Now we can look back with a smile to that first day last September. The empty halls of L.T.H.S. were filled with 251 new students, and we were eager to be a part of the good times and the studies. We purchased new books to put in our lockers, bought maroon sweaters and jackets and the symbols of the Porters.

At our first class meeting the following officers were elected: Roger Bolattino, president; Judy Johnson, vice-president; Sally Shoop, secretary; and Judy Stephenson, treasurer. Jane Murray and Patty Drake were chosen for the frosh-soph cheering squad to arouse pep and enthusiasm for our football and basketball games.

It has been an enlightening year and one full of fun. Many of the organizations have claimed members of our class as loyal supporters.

Remember the first exam, the first time on the honor roll? We made the grade and now we look forward to the time when we'll be able to look and laugh at the "greenies" who come in next September.

First row: Carene Erwin, Judy Winston, Aouda Belander, Virginia Arvidson, Sue Mandeville, Helen Blaskey, Marie Matesi.

National Honor Society

Membership in the National Honor Society is based upon four important characteristics—scholarship, character, leadership, and service. To be eligible for election into the society the senior must have attended L.T.H.S. for two years, and must rank in the upper one-third of the graduating class scholastically. Only fifteen percent of the graduating group may be chosen.

Leadership ability is considered for membership, and students chosen possess that quality in addition to good character and rendering service to the school.

Quill and Scroll

Quill and Scroll, a national journalistic society is an organization in which membership is limited to those students who have done outstanding work in the field of journalism. Candidates may be members of either the newspaper or year-book staff, doing superior work in writing, editing, or business management. To be eligible the student must be a junior or senior ranking in the upper third of the class scholastically and must be recommended by the sponsor of the publication.

Twenty new members are eligible for membership this year in addition to the following seniors who became members last year: Mary Brulc, Elaine Genge, Sue Mandeville, Marie Matesi, Ann Rankin, Judy Winston.

Many of the members have worked diligently on both the Lock and Times, and without their many hours of work there would be no publications.

Valedictorian—Judy Ehn; Salutatorian—Joy Leedom; Science Award Winner—Suzanne Woock.

Senior Achievements

D.A.R. Award winner—Joy Leedom.

Being at the top of one's class for four years is something to be very proud of. Judith Ehn, as valedictorian, shares this pride with Joy Leedom, the salutatorian.

Suzanne Woock received the Bausch and Lomb Honorary Science Award. This award is given to a senior, who in the estimation of the faculty has done outstanding work in science. The recipient of this award becomes eligible to compete for a University of Rochester scholarship.

Dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism were qualities exemplified by Joy Leedom who received the Daughters of the American Revolution Award. Three senior girls were nominated by the senior class, and by a vote of the faculty, one was chosen for the award.

Special Honors

To be in school every day for four years is something accomplished by few. As of April 15th, Dale Barnett, Shirley Brink, Caralee Colegrove, Corrine Cornolo, Carol Harris, and Allan Stone are candidates for the Perfect Attendance Award.

This year, as for the past two years, Lockport won the American Legion Oratorical Contest. The entire school is proud of Marie Matesi and the fine showing she made for L.T.H.S.

Other awards such as the Activities Award, given to the boy and girl who through participation in activities have made the greatest contribution to the school, and the Coaches Award, given to a boy of outstanding athletic ability, were chosen too late for publication.

American Legion Oratorical Contest: Marie Matesi, the only student from L.T.H.S. to participate this year.

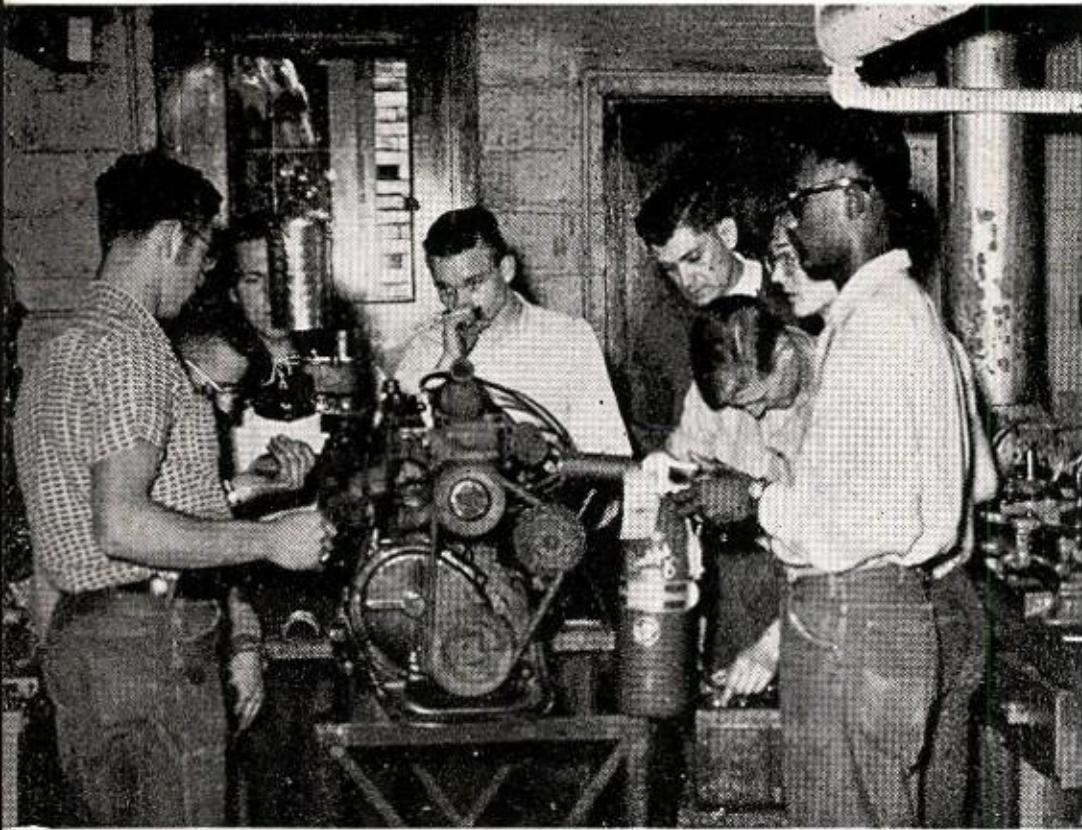

NATIONAL ATHLETIC SCHOLARSHIP SOCIETY—1955. Standing: J. Cole, D. Kasper, K. Barone, J. Miller. Seated: W. Gulden, J. Carollo, R. Norton, M. Mlynarik.

Athletic Award Winners

Any boy who has gained an athletic letter and has a scholastic rating equal to or above his class average for three semesters is eligible to become a member of the National Athletic Scholarship Society. These boys must have shown exemplary scholarship as well as sportsmanship. The boys who received the award this year are: Ken Barone, Jack Carollo, Joseph Cole, Wallace Gulden, Douglas Kasper, Jim Miller, Martin Mlynarik, and Ronald Norton. Those still in school who have previously received this award are: R. Bischoff, G. Bush, F. Caneva, T. Cannon, J. Djerf, G. Denick, D. Eichhorn, J. Fitzpatrick, D. Gray, H. Hacker, T. Halter, W. Jensen, F. Johnson, R. Johnson, W. Johnson, J. Kennedy, J. Mateski, E. Mickel, B. Nelson, H. Norton, S. Platko, W. Platt, . Riley, G. Rutkiewicz, G. Smith, A. Stone, D. Strong, W. Swanson, E. Timm, R. VanDeven, and W. Wheatley.

Scenes From

The industrial arts department, now consisting of seven various shops, offers a program to meet the needs of a growing school. Realizing that all students do not intend to pursue college careers, the school curriculum enables students who will work in the trades to choose a shop course to their liking.

For mathematically minded students there is a wide range of math courses available. Students going on to college usually take advanced math courses—plane and solid geometry, trigonometry and algebra II—in addition to algebra I. These courses include a study of the slide rule, and a little calculus as well.

AUTO SHOP: "Tighten those tappets."

—Carburetors, tappets, spark plugs and radiators are all familiar terms to auto shop students as they tinker with autos, trucks and motorcycles.

CRAFTS: "Move that wallet to the right."

—Mr. Cherry supervises the placing of hand tooled leather goods and plastic novelties in the crafts and plastics display window.

ADVANCED MATH: "Delta Y over Delta X = . . ."

—Advanced Math students listen intently to the explanation of new symbols and terms.

Our Classes

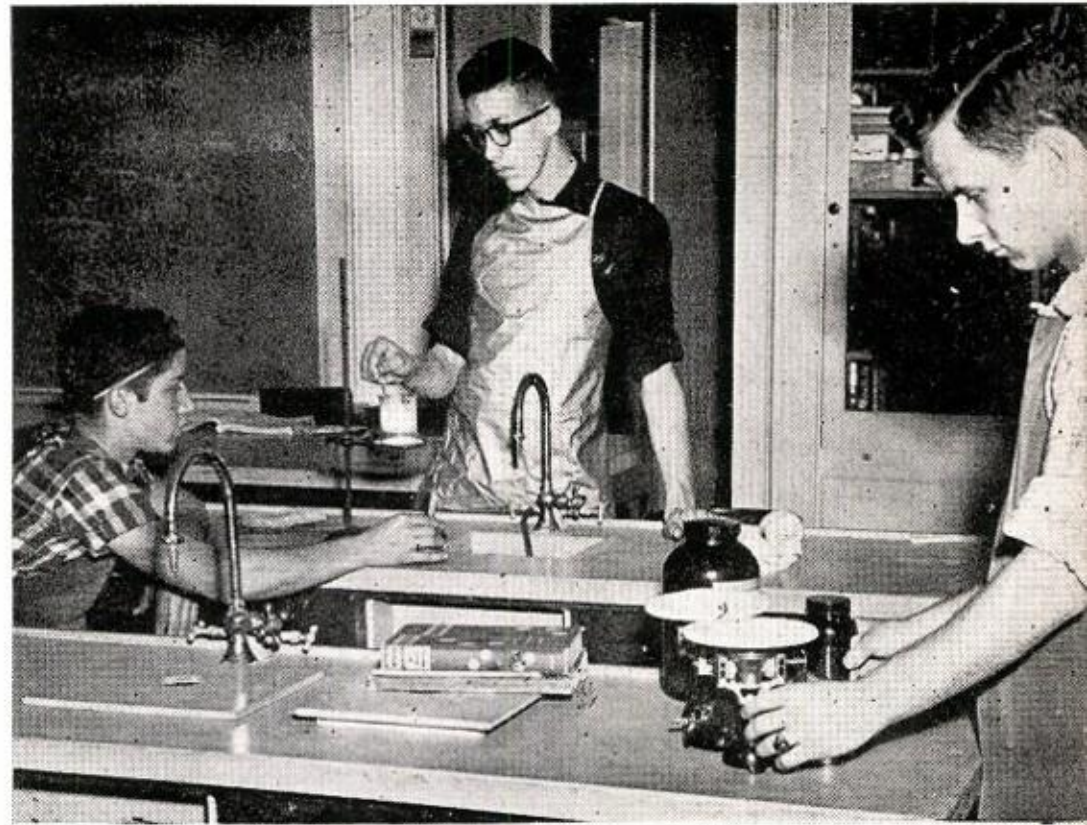

Science, which consists of many kinds of classified knowledge, is already a large department of study at L.T.H.S., and is fast becoming one of the largest. This is evidenced by four biology, two chemistry, a physics, and a number of freshman science classes.

This year's social science classes included world history, U. S. history, civics, and economics. A special project of some of the economics classes was the making of scrapbooks depicting economic progress.

CHEMISTRY: "How many grams do you need?"—A pertinent question in any chemical work and especially so in saponification, that is, soap-making.

GENERAL SCIENCE: "This part of the eye is the lens."—Mr. Walter's freshman science class studies parts of the eye through the aid of a ceramic eye model.

CIVICS: "What was the first American industry?"—This question apparently has the class stumped; however through charts and diagrams they soon will learn the answer.

Developing

For the artistically inclined students at L.T.H.S., there are two courses offered—art and art appreciation. Art, however, is not only painting and a study of pigments, but the making of numerous display projects as well.

The language curricula of L.T.H.S. consists of a four-year course in English with Latin, Spanish and French as elective subjects. Each year the number of students enrolled in these foreign language courses indicates the interest in learning a language other than our own.

Courses at the school that offer opportunities in the business world are book-keeping, shorthand, typing and salesmanship. This year a School-Work Cooperation Plan was inaugurated whereby two high school girls work a half-day at Argonne Laboratory after attending morning sessions of school.

ART: "Careful, you'll knock his head off."

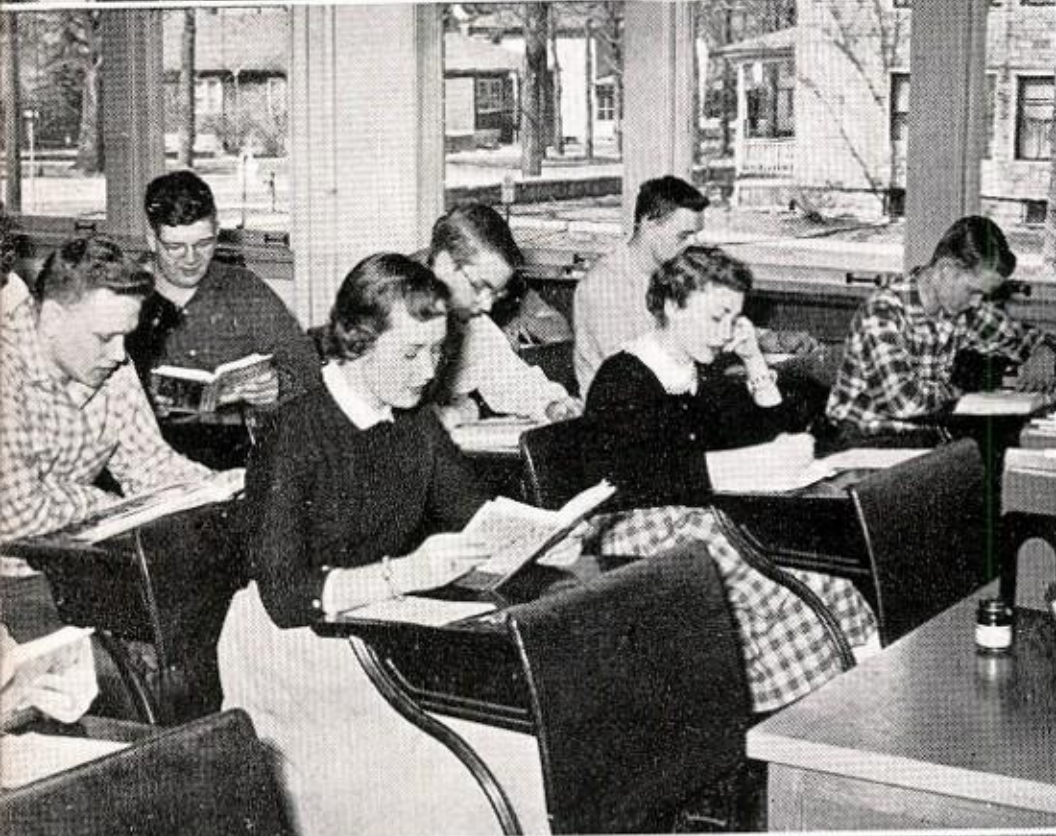

—Art students pack table centerpieces they made for Education Day Banquet. Centerpieces depicted characters or events in history and fiction.

LANGUAGE: "Je vous aime beaucoup."

—French, the diplomatic language, is carefully studied by French II students. Correct shaping of the lips, careful enunciation and proper nasal sounds are all important for mastering the language.

STENOGRAPHY: "You have 20 seconds left!"

—Mrs. Shoop times two L.T.H.S. girls on their shorthand abilities. These girls at present work a half-day at Argonne Laboratory under a School-Work Cooperation Plan.

New Skills

Regardless of the type of career a girl may choose, almost all of them inevitably join the ranks of thousands of others as homemaker, housewife and mother. Through the various home economics courses, skill in cooking, sewing, table-setting and meal-planning are learned by these future homemakers of America.

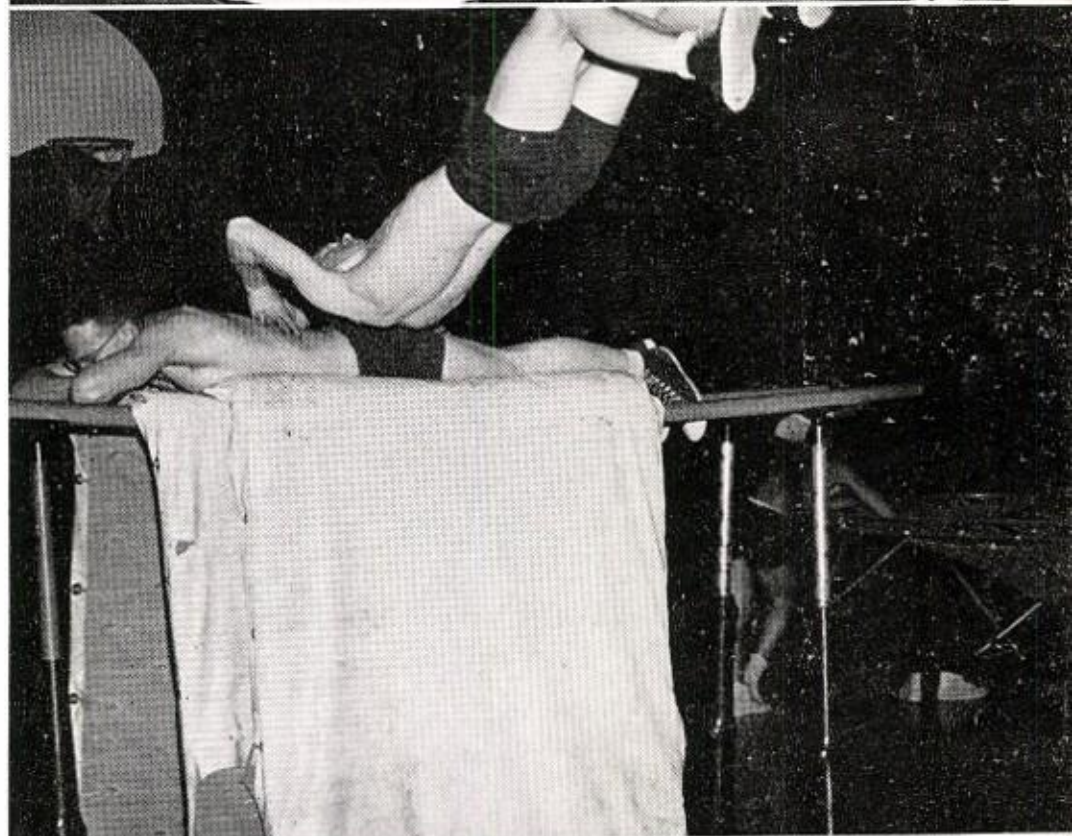

This year a new gym program was inaugurated for the girls' P.E. classes. Following this program the girls had two days of health, two of gym, and one day of swimming. A Red Cross Home Nursing course was substituted in several classes for health.

Boys' P.E. classes this year consisted of various sports available not only to those who participated in school contests but to all boys. Gymnastics and intramurals were popular activities of the classes throughout the year.

FOODS: "Ah! Blueberry pie!"—Members of a foods class, tempted by the delicious aroma of blueberry pie, cannot resist taking a peek in the oven.

BOYS' P.E.: "Over the elephant."—Boys in the P.E. classes demonstrate a gymnastic stunt, "over the elephant," by using the "elephant."

GIRLS' P.E.: "One, two, three—up!"—A trampoline demonstration by two L. T. H. S. graduates, Barbara Blish and Ginger Whalen, is presented to the physical education classes.

G.A.A. Promotes Sportsmanship

The G.A.A. is one of the largest organizations in school; it is important, too, because it is the only organization that offers extracurricular sports for girls. The main objective of G.A.A. is promoting an active interest in sports, but there are many others, such as encouraging good health and good sportsmanship that are also important. Some activities offered are: volleyball, tennis, riding, basketball, bowling, tumbling, and golf. Intramural tournaments are held to give members an incentive to participate in the activities, but the main goal is the earning of an award letter. Under the present point system, it is possible to earn a letter in only one year; many new members are active enough in sports so that they do receive their first letter by then.

Miss Olson and Miss Piolet, sponsors of G.A.A. activities, have quite a responsibility this year because of the large membership; it was even necessary to set up split schedules for some sports so that all who wanted to take part in these activities could do so.

Initiation for new members was held near the end of the school year; the old members look forward to this day all year. The G.A.A. exhibition and Mother-Daughter tea were also held in the spring. At this time, awards were given and exhibitions of several sports presented.

TELEGRAPHIC BOWLING TEAM: The five girls whose scores were sent to the Telegraphic Bowling Tournament were Joan Boettcher, Barbara Reick, Norritta Corniels, Dorlene Sample, and Loretta Burger.

Fifth row: A. Rankin, M. Pluth, J. Pius, J. Packley, J. Sartori, J. Wilson, D. Janovsky, C. Cornolo, S. Woock, S. Mumaugh, B. Swenson. Fourth row: E. Genge, M. McIntyre, C. Alexander, C. Life Saving and Water Safety

RED CROSS WATER SAFETY INSTRUCTION AIDES: Pat Kern, Mrs. H. F. Kern—instructor, Mary Ann Miranda, Carene Erwin, Candy Knutson.

More than twenty girls went out for Red Cross Life-Saving and Water Safety in the fall. Most of them were working for their Senior Life-Saving Certificate, but there were also several working for their Junior Certificate.

Mrs. H. F. Kern was the instructor; her assistants were Pat Kern, Mary Ann Miranda, Carene Erwin, and Candy Knutson.

Lessons were given on the different life-saving techniques, such as the chin carry, the cross-chest carry, the head carry, and blocks, which are used to give free movements to the person who is doing the rescuing. The girls also were given instruction on how to administer artificial respiration and how to give first aid to a person after he is rescued.

"Our Lady of the Crossroads"

The student body and faculty gathered in the school auditorium that December morning as if, already, they were aware of the mood the Christmas play would set in their minds and hearts. The play, "Our Lady of the Crossroads," was based on a legend concerning the Sorrowful Madonna. King Wenceslaus, during medieval times, had erected, in honor of the Madonna, a shrine to which people could bring gifts. The proper gift, it was said, would bring the Lady to life. Throughout the years many gifts were brought to the shrine, but not until a poor widow came with her gift, her only child, did the Madonna come to life. Portraying the Lady is Nina Pleshaw. Visitors to the shrine were King Wenceslaus (Francis Caneva), his wife (Marian Jungles), the carolers (Kathy Roberts, Sandra Farnsworth, Elaine Getson, Betty Thomas, Judy Stephenson, and Judy Gottry), a king (Dan Tynor), a princess (Judy Klatte), a court jester (Jane Murray), wisemen (Ray Schuler, Kathleen Perona, and Carole Sullivan), shepherds (George Bush, Herb Norton, and Jerry Karns), and Myra (Doris Vahle). The narrator was Joy Leedom.

Back row: M. Thomas, B. Thomas, N. Pleshaw, E. Getson. Middle row: H. Norton, D. Tynor, J. Klatte, K. Perona, J. Stephenson, R. Schuler, M. Jungles, F. Caneva, J. Karns, G. Bush. Front row: J. Murray, D. Vahle, K. Roberts.

In a scene from the play "Brother Goose," Wes (George Bush) shows his sock, which needs mending, to Jeff Adams (Francis Caneva) who is already busy sewing a dress in his attempt to keep the family together.

Junior Class Play

"Brother Goose" by William Davidson was presented by the junior class on Thursday and Friday, November 18 and 19, under the direction of Mr. John W. Gahala.

The scene, as the curtain rises, is an extremely messy living room in an old house in a small Midwestern town. Jeff Adams, a good looking architect of about twenty-five, is busy attempting to keep the family running. Cooking, washing, ironing, and providing an income are only part of his daily routine.

Jeff's family consists of his brother, Wes, and his two sisters, Carol and Hyacinth.

Wes, seventeen, is constantly occupied with some new girl-friend, his latest being the pretty, seventeen year old, Southern Belle, Eve Mason.

Carol, fifteen, is determined to win a "jingle" contest, so she can take a trip to Hollywood; and Hy, a ten year old female football player, has her mind and heart set on becoming the captain of the neighborhood team.

Shortly after the housekeeper, Helen, quit, a door to door saleswoman, Miss Peggy Winkel arrives on the scene. Jeff mistakenly takes her for the new housekeeper. He finally discovers Peggy's real identity, but with his persuading personality, good looks, and because Peggy has fallen in love with him, a fact of which he is unaware, he convinces her that this is a job, which she would enjoy.

Jeff's fiancée, Lenor Hudson, disapproves of his choice, but housekeepers are hard to find, and Peggy has a way with the kids.

Lenor comes from a wealthy family and selfishly thinks her way is the only way. She takes advantage of Jeff's trust in her, but she is exposed by Mrs. Trimmer, Jeff's wealthy client.

Much to the joy of everyone concerned, Jeff realizes his love for Peggy, and they begin making plans for the wedding.

Others in the cast are: Sara, Eve Mason's maid, and a truck driver.

In a comical situation, Wes (George Bush) hands Eve Mason (Pat Turner) a slip which he thinks is a dish towel.

Mimi (Judy Klatte) watches sympathetically as dashing Randy (Dan Tynor) bends to pick up his neurotic sweetheart, Lucille (Jeanne Pius.)

Senior Play --

"The Clock Struck Twelve," a fast moving mystery farce was the choice of the senior class for its annual play. Presented on March 24th and 25th, the play featured a double cast directed by student director, Judy Snyder.

The play concerned a trio of girls—Peggy, Mimi and Gail—who were forced, when their car stalled in the rain, to spend the night in a supposedly deserted mansion. The house, however, soon produced a number of characters. Among these were: John D. Astorfeller, a mentally retarded young man; Lucille Thomas, a neurotic young woman; her brother, Tom; Constable Summons; Randy Hendrix, a handsome neighbor; Elizabeth the housekeeper; and last but not least, Grandfather Thomas's ghost.

"The Clock Struck Twelve"

Lucille and Randy had plotted grandfather's murder and framed brother Tom. He returned on the anniversary of the murder, seeking to clear himself. As the ghost put in his appearance Lucille was shot by Randy.

The climax of the play occurred when

Randy was arrested after a scuffle with Tom, who had found out Randy's identity as the real culprit.

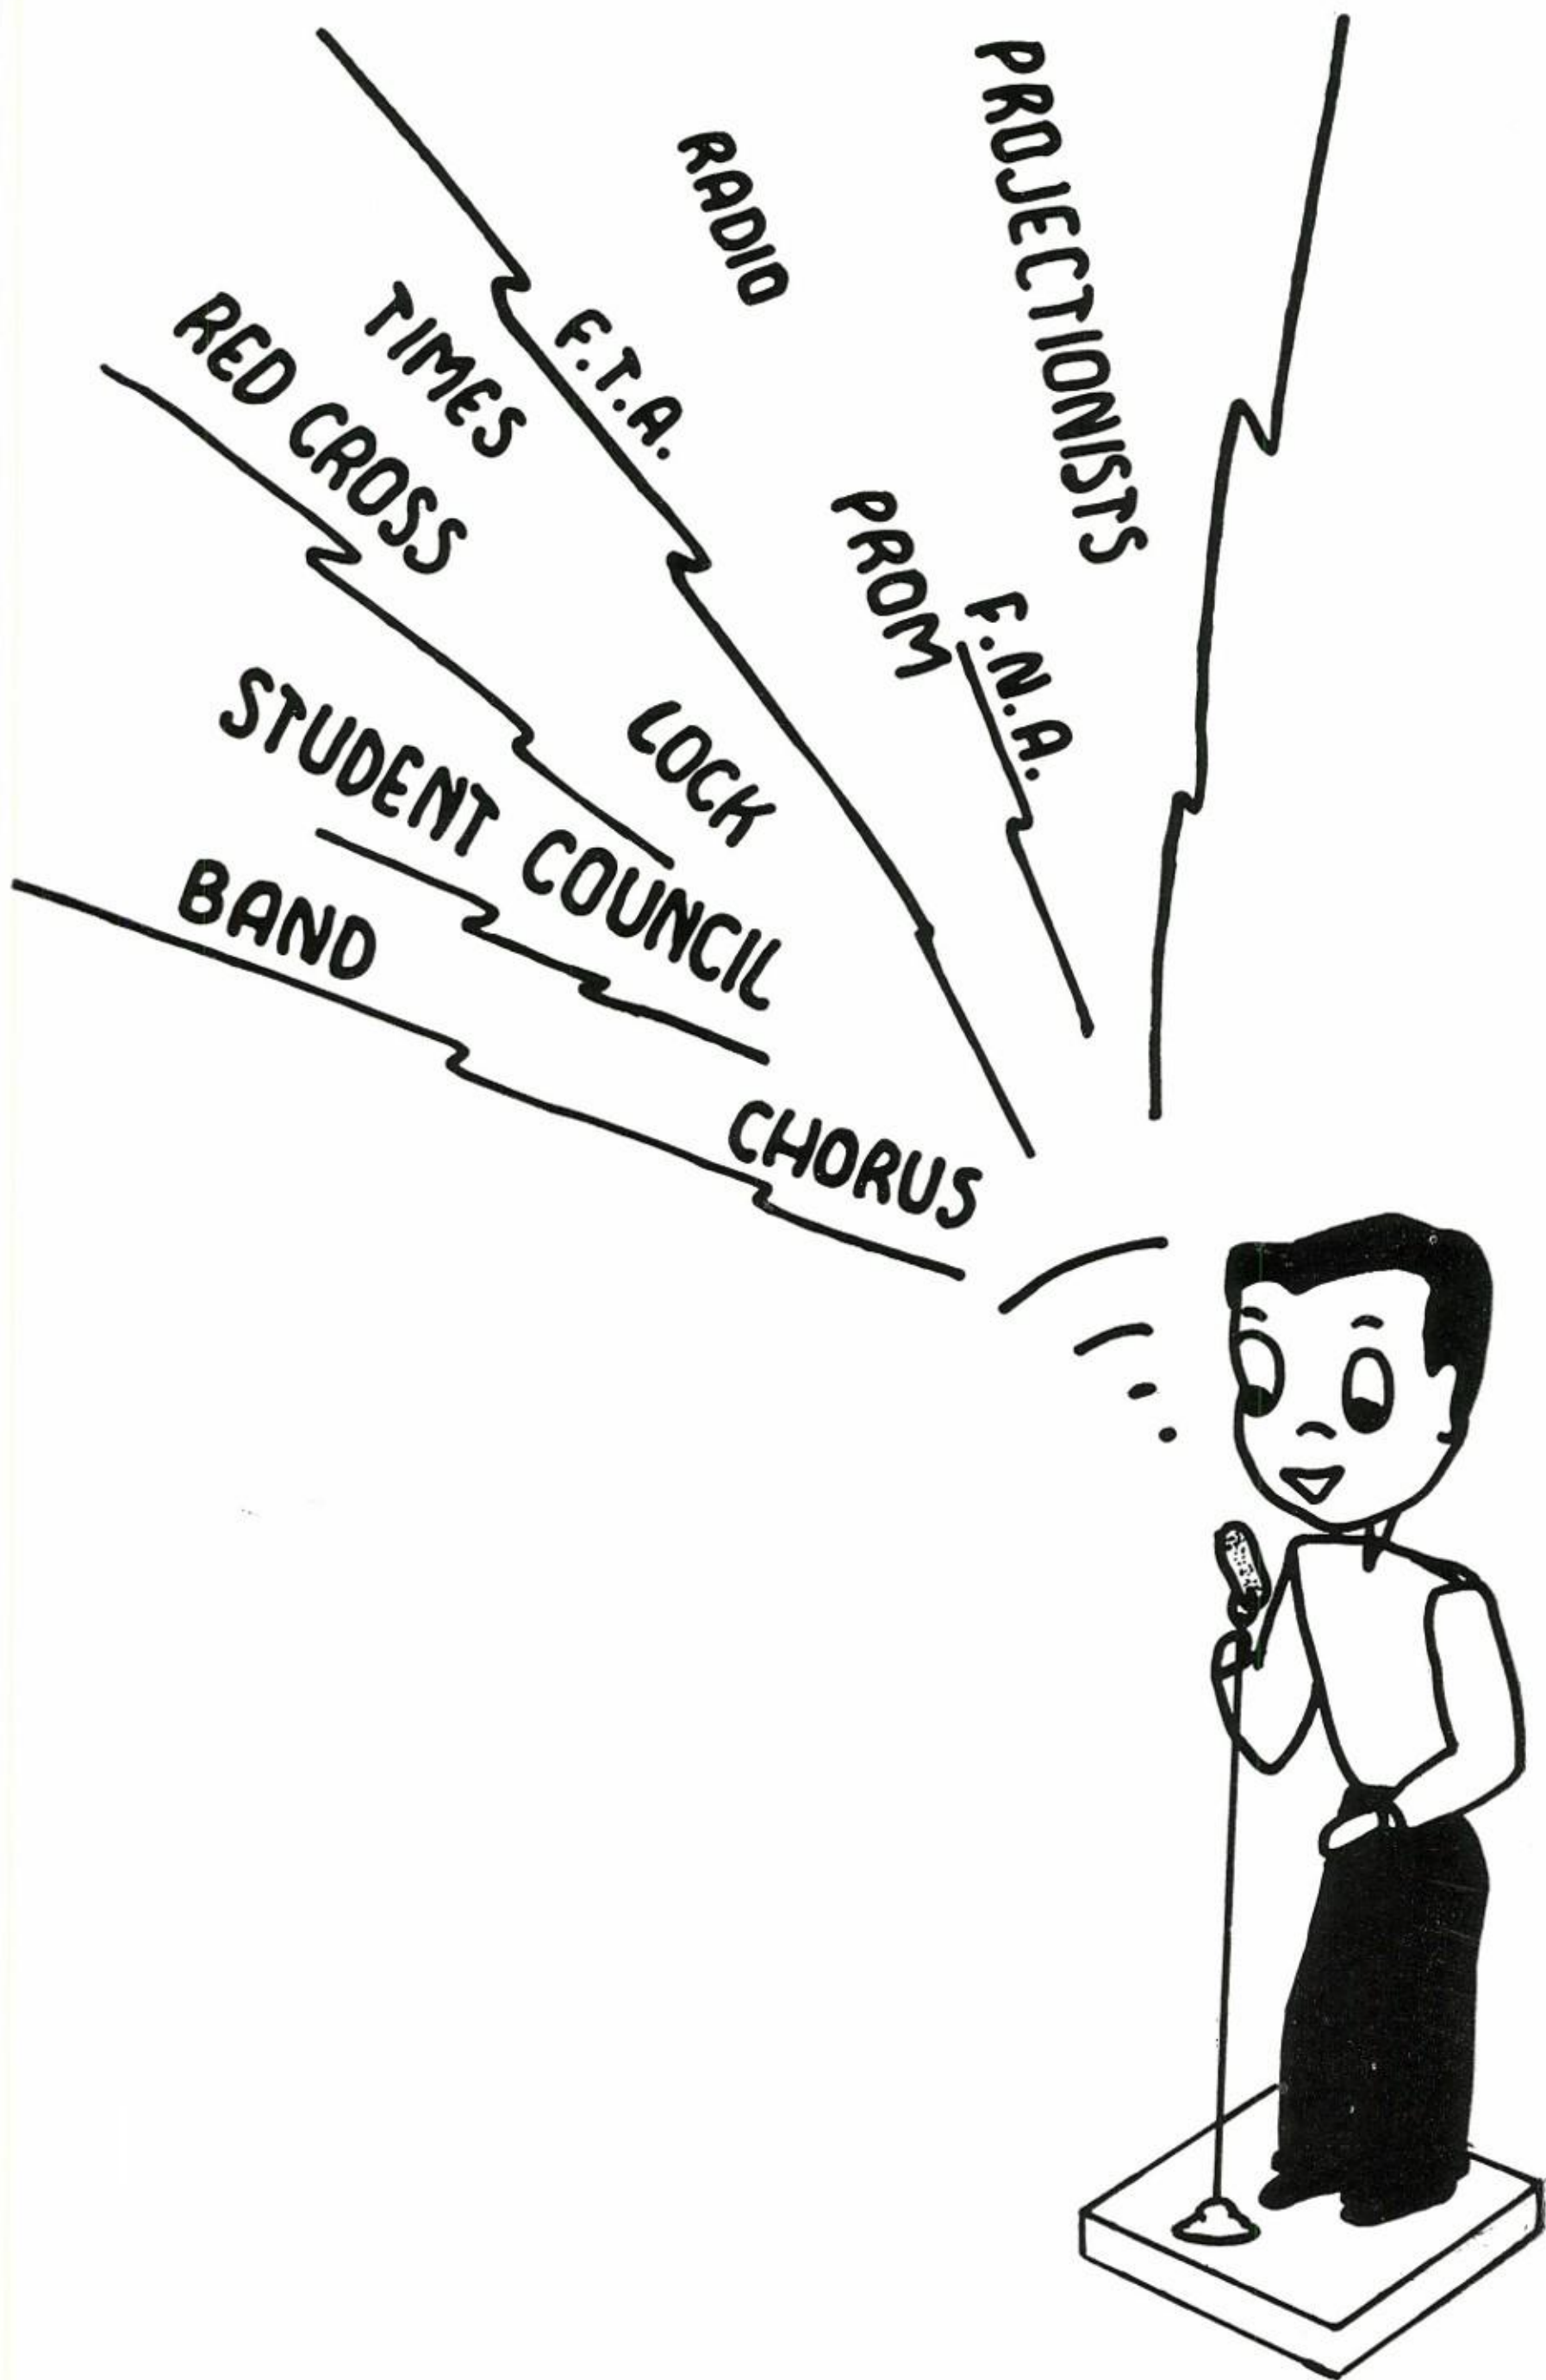

A dash of romance was added with the affair of Tom and Peggy, but as the play must end sometime this was dispelled and the girls continued on their way.

Irate Tom Dick (Manny Mickel), insistently demands that his mentally deranged sister, Lucille (Jackie Farcus), tell where she hid the document that will prove him innocent of his grandfather's murder.

The Junior Red Cross, under the sponsorship of Miss O'Brien, continued this year to be an active organization. Its members were elected, one from every homeroom. The president of our Junior Red Cross, Virginia Arvidson, also had the distinction of serving as president of the Will County Junior Red Cross.

One of the first projects of the year was the canvassing of homerooms for the Junior Red Cross Membership drive. The money raised from this drive was sent to the Will County Chapter of the American Red Cross to further their many community services. Other fall projects included the selling of football programs and the making of flexahexagons, which were distributed in veterans' hospitals.

The members packed the crayons, pencils, soap, and other items, gathered from the homeroom drives, in gift boxes, which were sent overseas to less fortunate people.

In the latter part of the year, the Junior Red Cross was host for the meeting of the Will County Junior Red Cross.

Projectionist and Radio Clubs

The Projectionists' Club, with Mr. Paul Jorgenson as sponsor, teaches students proper use of projection equipment.

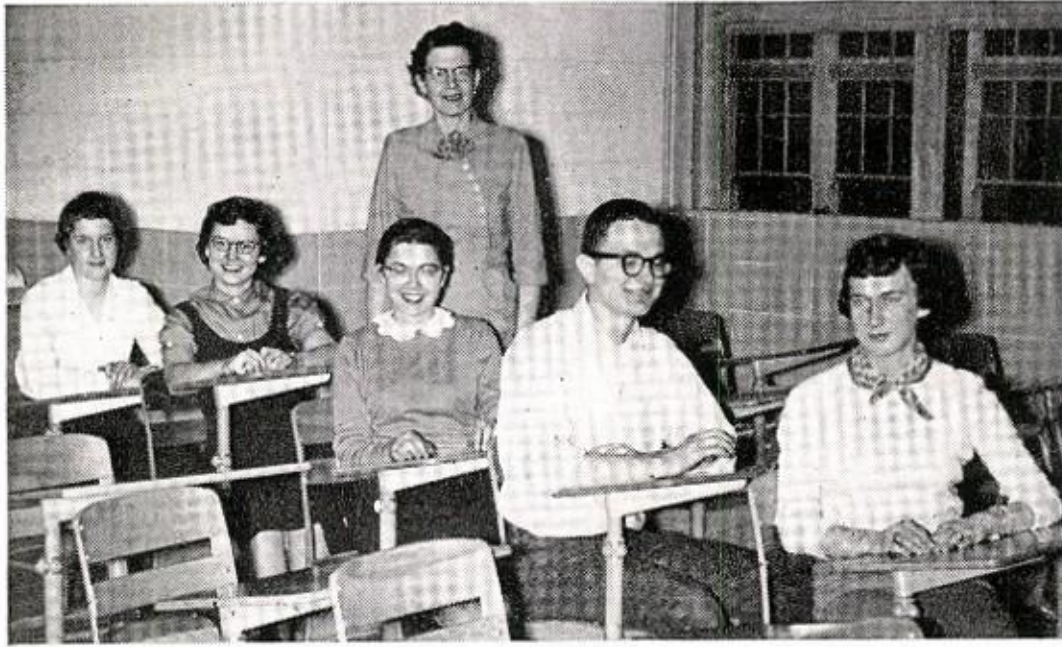

When the club met after school on Tuesday of each week, a student, having learned to properly operate a piece of equipment, demonstrated his ability. This was signified on a projectionists card given to each member.

The Radio Club, organized during the second semester by Mr. Jorgenson, met after school each Thursday. Here members learned how to send and receive Morse Code so that they could obtain an amateur ham's license.

Future Teachers of America

The Future Teachers, an organization that encourages students to enter the teaching profession, is a relatively new club at L.T.H.S. The organization was named for Edward F. Worst, a well-known Lockport educator.

Throughout the year club members were given an opportunity to hear speakers discuss various aspects of the teaching profession. Other club activities included the presentation of a skit "Do You Know Liz?" for the Lockport Classroom Teachers Association; they also entertained the Rho Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma and the Joliet F.T.A. Club at a meeting in March.

The group boasts a membership of almost forty members. Mrs. Mildred Shoop is the faculty sponsor.

Future Nurses Club

With the able assistance of their sponsors, Mrs. G. Lorenzen and Miss Taylor, the Future Nurses Club has concluded their fourth successful year.

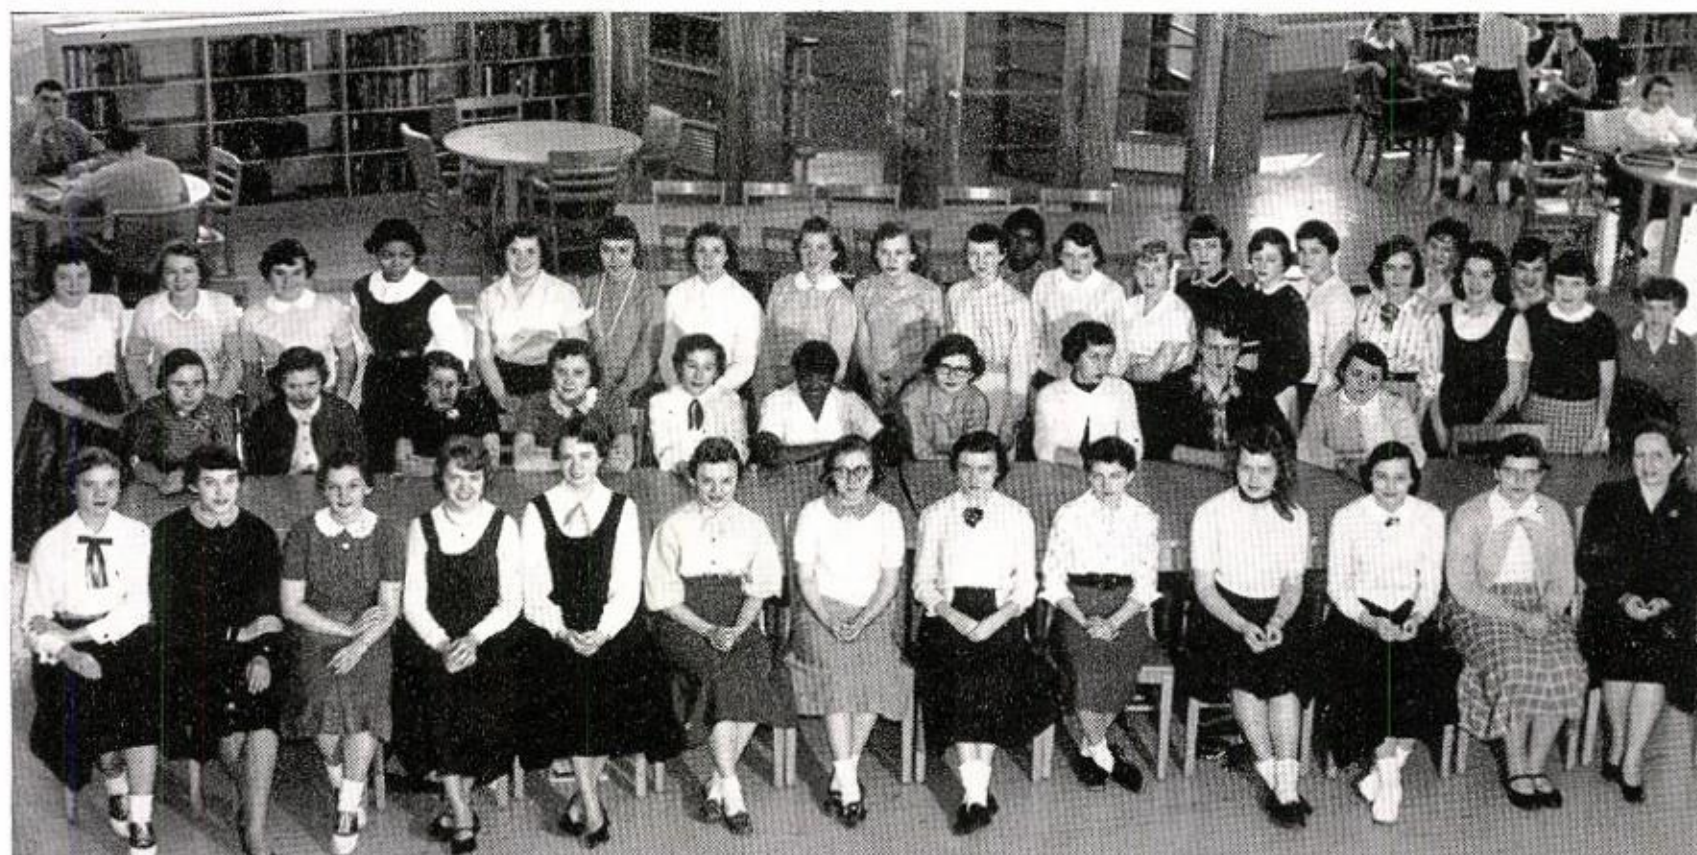

Their meetings were held twice a month. At one of these meetings they entertained the members of the Future Nurses Club of Plainfield High School.

Speakers were invited to some of their meetings and talked to the members on different phases of nursing.

The members of the Future Nurses Club were given actual experience in nursing when they made cancer dressings and bandages, and entertained the orphans at the Lutheran Home for Orphans in Joliet. They also helped the Civil Defense in Lockport.

The highlight of the year was a visit to Silver Cross Hospital where they actually got to see experienced nurses in action.

Student Council

The Student Council membership is composed of homeroom representatives, heads of school organizations, and presidents of the four classes. During council meetings methods and ways of improving student life are discussed.

Through the careful planning and hard work of this year's council came the "pep" sessions, cheery Christmas decorations, lunch-time music, the fourth annual Valentine dance—Key To My Heart, and the very successful open house and homecoming celebrations.

The Student Council was completely reorganized into six well-functioning committees with the following students as chairmen: Herbert Hacker, welfare; Carol Alexander, finance; Judy Snyder, program; Elaine Genge, steering; Joy Leedom, social; Ronald Johnson, leadership and training.

In the years to come as you "thumb" through the pages of this Lock, may you glow with an inner pride when your eyes come to rest on the page bearing your name and picture, and may you have a deep satisfaction because you have been a part of Lockport Township High School, whether by outstanding service to your class and school or by just being a student at L.T.H.S. From deep down inside there will come a chuckle and maybe even a sigh when you recall all the work and time spent on school committees and projects and of the good fellowship with friends.

This is the staff's hope, that through the Lock, you will have an ever-living memory of this high school year.

Judy Winston, Aouda Belander, Suzanne Woock, Marie Matesi, Marlene McIntyre, and Herb Norton, are putting the finishing touches on these pictures at an after school work session.

Lock Business Staff

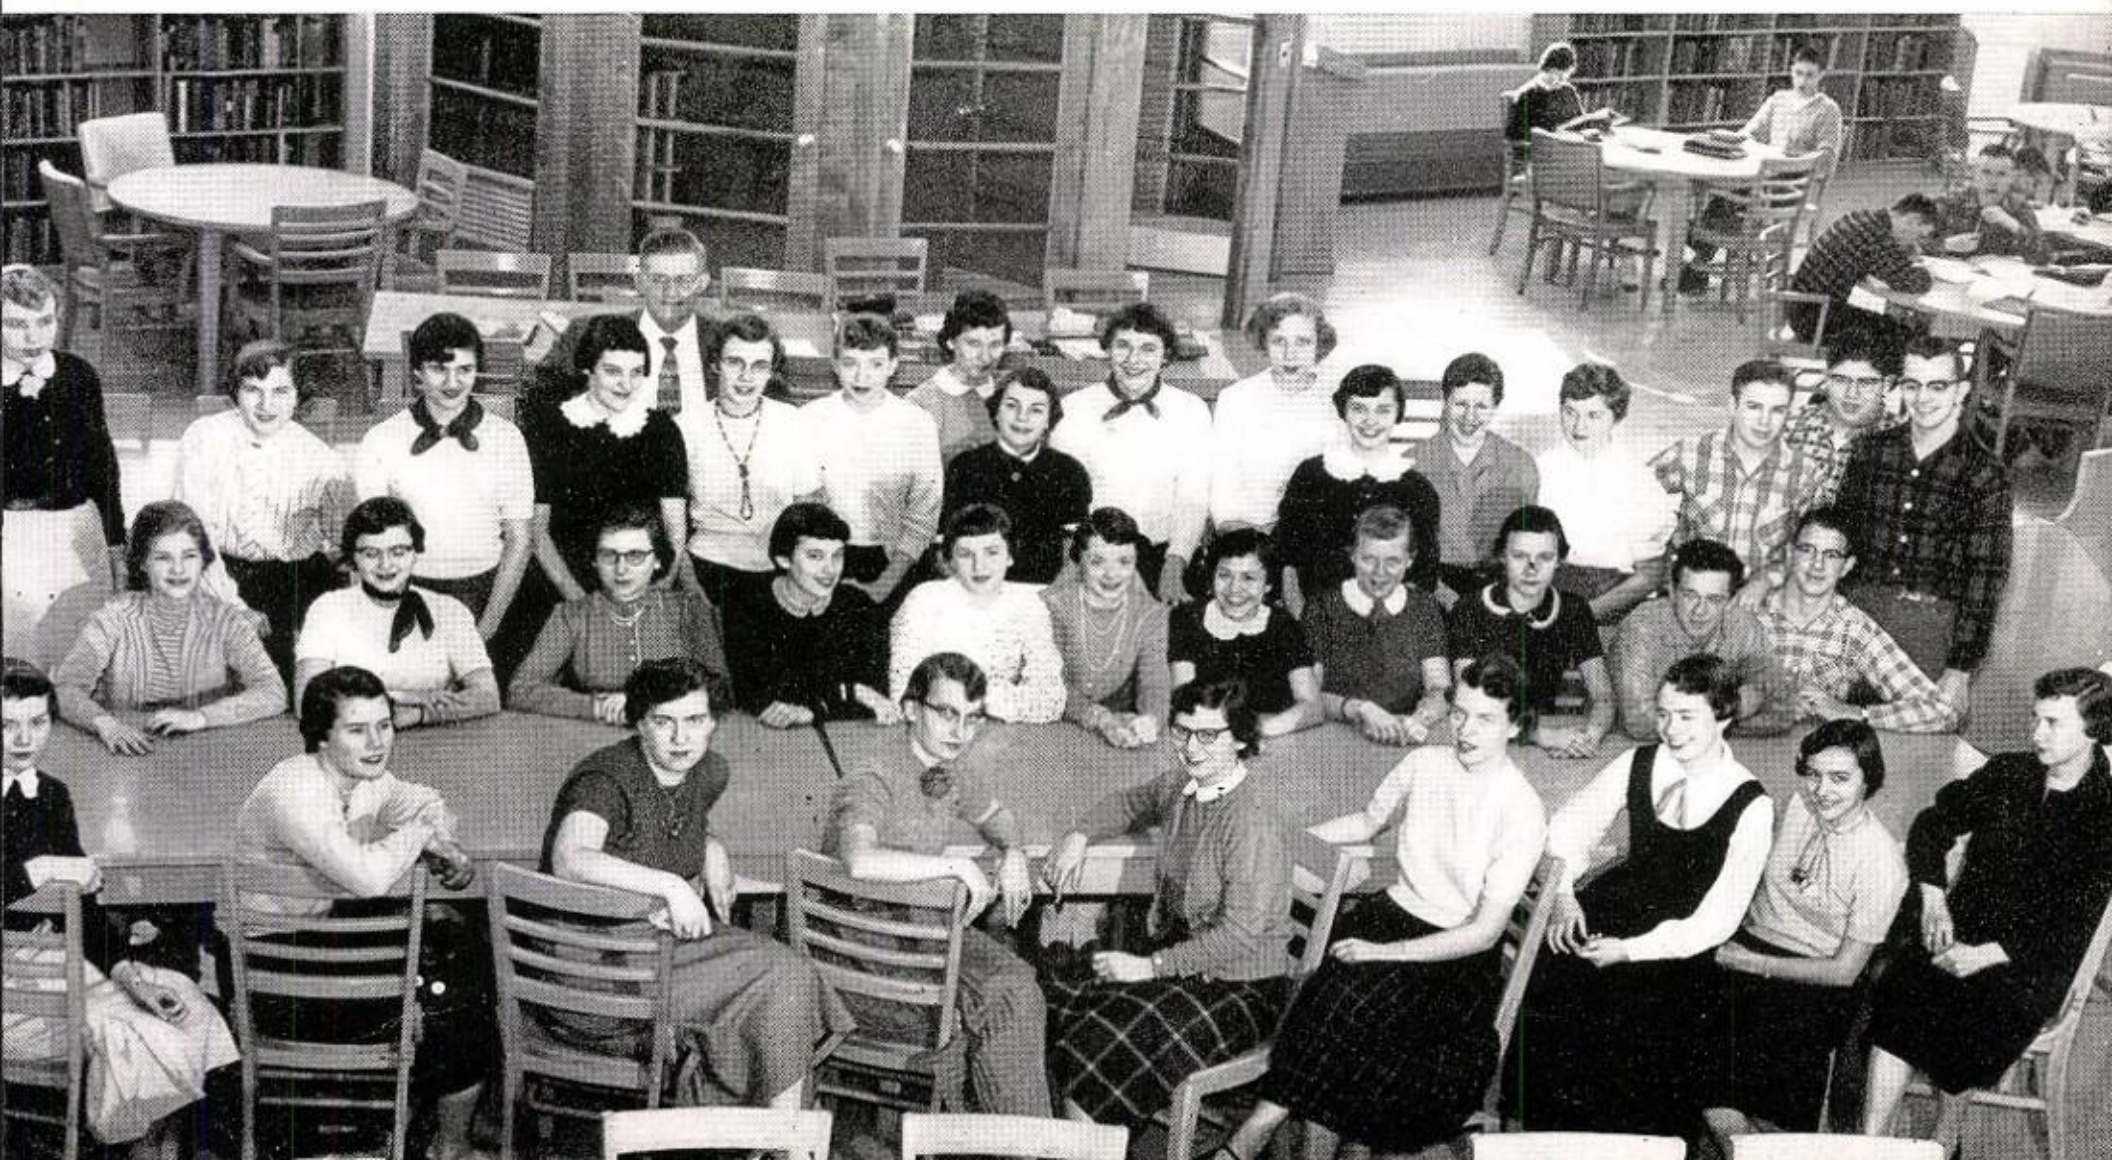

Through the efforts of the business staff in running the Lock subscription campaign, scheduling of class pictures, supervising the Lock Staff dances, and selling cokes after these dances, the money needed to finance our Lock's publication was raised.

Since the amount that each student paid for his Lock subscription did not cover its true cost, the business staff was called upon to raise the additional amount. The staff members devoted much time and effort to meet this deficit.

The Times Marches On

"Bring your dimes tomorrow!" was the usual cry of Times staff members on the second Monday of each month throughout the school year, for the following day meant the distribution of the school's monthly publication, "The Times."

The staff, composed of senior editors and underclass reporters, worked throughout each month to bring to the student body a newspaper that was interesting and humorous as well as informative.

Several innovations to the old Times were begun this year in an effort to publish a paper of the type required by the increased enrollment. The first of these was the printing of pictures of students, athletic events, and social events. The second was changing from the traditional four column newspaper to a larger, modern five column publication.

These changes in the paper, it is hoped, will help make the Times continue to be a paper truly representative of the students.

Co-editors, Marie Matesi and Joy Leedom, confer with Times sponsor, Mr. Gahala.

Discussing their respective duties on the Times are: news-editors, Judy Winston and Judy Snyder; column, Elaine Genge; sports editor, John Djerf; circulation manager, Helen Blaskey; news-editor, Judy Ehn.

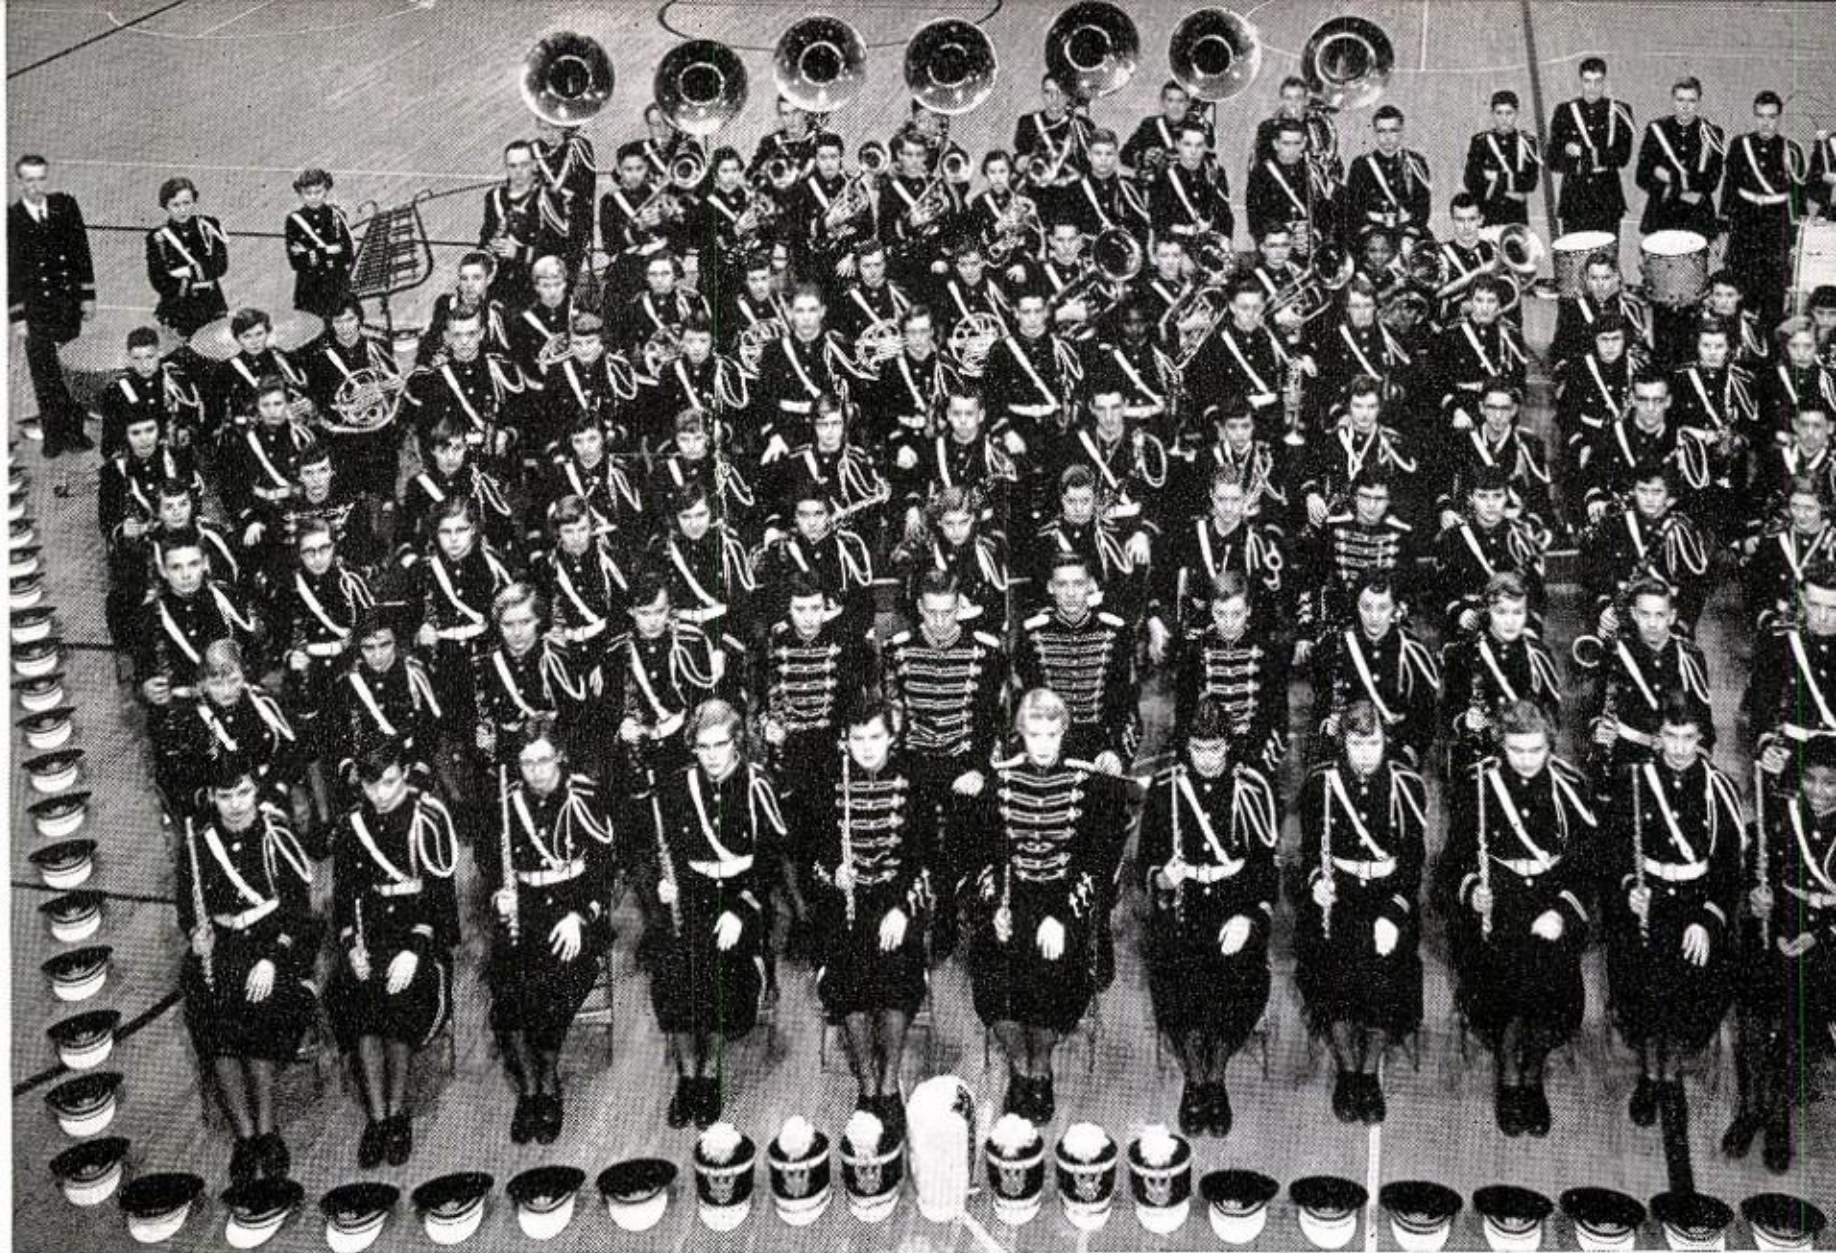

Three girls who faithfully, week after week, wrote L.T.H.S. columns for the local newspapers were: Lockport Herald reporter, Judy Klatte; Spectator reporters, Carene Erwin and Virginia Arvidson.

Hats Off to the Band!

The championship L.T.H.S. band, an integral part of our school life, has been active not only at school but at various events throughout the year as well.

Some of these events were its performances at the Tulip Festival in Holland, Michigan, the Gardner Centennial Celebration and at Riverview Park. In addition to these trips the band played at all home football and basketball games, providing entertainment during halves of the games.

The annual band concert honored the late A. R. McAllister of the famed Joliet Township High School Band. A. McAllister Jr. and Forrest McAllister, sons of the late director, served as guest conductors for the day.

To Mr. Caneva and Mr. Tatroe much credit should be given, not only for their directing abilities, but also for the qualities of leadership and perseverance which they instill in the band members. The band members should also be recognized as a very special group of students, for no other activity in school requires so much time and effort to function effectively. Hats off to the champs—our L.T.H.S. Band!

BAND OFFICERS, Back row: M. J. Berta, secretary to Mr. Caneva; P. O'Brien and B. Young, librarian. Front row: R. Bolantino, treasurer; R. Hill, secretary; A. Longhini, vice-president; D. Tynor, president.

BAND CONCERT: With Mr. Caneva at the annual concert are the wife of the late A. R. McAllister; his two sons, A. R. McAllister, Jr., director of the championship Harwood Post Legion Band; Forrest McAllister, owner and publisher of The School Musician; and Mr. Bottino. The Concert honored the late A. R. McAllister.

Members of the band and their guests seem to be enjoying themselves at the 22nd Annual Band Banquet held this year at St. Paul's Hall.

Annual Band Banquet

The 22nd Annual Band Banquet was an event looked forward to by every member of the band.

Band president, Daniel Tynor, welcomed the guests present. Mr. Bottino and Mr. Flink were called upon to speak, as were the members of the board of education and Mr. Swen Nelson, president of the Band Boosters. Guest speaker for the evening was Mr. Thomas Fabish, director of the C.Y.O. Band in Chicago.

Mr. Rutter served as toastmaster for the evening.

The events of the past four years of the band were summarized by its senior members. This honor was given to Virginia Arvidson, Mary Ann Miranda, Emanuel Mickel, and Tom Haller.

Mr. Caneva was called upon to say a few words before the benediction by Rev. M. J. Mugan.

On Sunday, March 6, through the combined efforts of the band and chorus, the annual concert was presented. Pictured here are the Frosh-Soph Chorus, accompanied by the Orchestra. The Junior-Senior Chorus can be seen in the background.

Band and Chorus Concert

A. R. McAllister, Jr., guest conductor, is seen directing the band at the annual concert which honored his father, the late A. R. McAllister. Forrest McAllister, another son, also conducted.

Junior-Senior Chorus

"Music lingers on" throughout the corridors of L.T.H.S. with the musical notes of singing voices. This year the Junior-Senior chorus brought a little brightness into the lives of many students. More than 50 students deprived themselves of a study hall in order to participate in the chorus, but the dividends far surpassed the sacrifices.

The activities of the chorus ranged from the traditional Baccalaureate to the patriotic Armistice and Lincoln Day programs. The "Alma Mater" re-echoed in every part of L.T.H.S. with the pep sessions for many games. But as usual the concert was the highlight of the year's chorus program. The Junior-Senior group sang both classical and semi-classical music which included "Glory Be to the Father," "Tumbling Tumbleweed," "Deep River," and climaxed with a "Tribute to Romberg," with orchestra accompaniment.

Besides performing in the chorus a few members entertained at community and school functions. Also new this year were the student conductors, who led the chorus at many of the school programs.

Much work and energy went into each and every program, but all this work was clouded over with the satisfaction of attaining a fine performance.

Frosh—Soph Chorus

The organization of the Freshmen-Sophomore glee club was a step forward toward a very bright future. The glee club consisted entirely of freshmen and sophomore girls who sang during the first period of the lunch hour.

This year the girls have learned some of the fundamental facts about music, such as the singing of the different scales and the reading of music.

The schedules of both choruses were arranged so that both groups might sing together for a few minutes each day. This made it possible for the glee club to gain experience in a mixed group.

One agonizing experience of the freshmen members was their first individual voice test. Although the tests were never difficult, everyone felt much better after they were completed.

Hard work and an earnest desire to do well were shown by the fine performance of the organization in the annual concert. A few of the concert selections were "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," "Stodola Pampa," and "Night and Day" with the orchestra accompaniment.

The participation in the Junior-Senior chorus and the new music department are activities of the future which are greatly anticipated.

Back row: K. Cherry, J. Stauss, K. Murray, M. Adee, J. Rodeghiero, J. Fenn, E. Thomas, M. Segerberg, J. VanDyke, S. Ausec, J. Sprinkle, N. Cregan, E. Getson, J. Olsen, N. Pleshaw. Third row: M. Kurth, E. Krohn, M. Munari, K. Perona, C. Abrams, S. O'Brien, L. Cappelletto, B. Garson, D. Krueger, S. Ayers, K. Bensing, C. Dehm, M. Whalen, S. Rumchak, M. Aspel, G. Barfield. Second row: M. Grubisich, J. Ferguson, J. Hutchenson, M. Allen, C. Sullivan, N. Fredendall, K. Ehn, J. Giardina, P. Lillie, S. Gliwa, M. Gorc, M. Vonch, L. Troutman, G. Schifler, J. Murray, L. McNear. First row: J. Long, A. Grubisich, C. Cooper, R. Ketchum, J. Fisher, M. Eichelberger, A. McDavid, K. Roberts, J. Stephenson, C. Miranda, C. Tondini, M. Ward, M. Zabala, M. Pena, F. Gutierrez, J. DelSasso, S. Ayers.

No Christmas dance would be complete without the ever popular mistletoe. Dan Tynor and Marilyn McCarthy take advantage of the situation but are caught under the mistletoe by the cameraman.

"Jingle Bell Ball"

Adding to the festivities of the holiday season was the Christmas dance sponsored jointly by the band and chorus. The decorative scheme centered around the large shimmering Christmas tree which stood majestically in the center of the room and a great many bells appropriately placed. The girls, prettily attired in their holiday finery, presented a lovely sight.

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of a king and queen, Herbert Norton and Judy Klatte.

Leading the Grand March at the third annual music department dance were Herbert Norton and Judy Klatte, who had just been crowned king and queen, and also Jim Riley and Vera Walk.

"Key To My Heart"

Streamers extending from the walls to the center of the room to form a large heart added distinction to the student council sponsored Valentine dance.

Entertainment by Barbara Reick with marimba selections was well received as well as a comical trio composed of Dale Gray, Robert Hill and Dan Tynor.

The royal titles of king and queen were bestowed upon Janice Day and her escort for the evening by student council co-president Gerald Rutkiewicz.

Janice Day and her escort were crowned King and Queen at the Annual Valentine Dance sponsored by the Student Council.

These couples seemed to be enjoying themselves as they danced to the music of Roy Gordon's Band.

"Holiday For Strings"

An atmosphere of heavenly music welcomed girls in billowy, pastel-colored dresses and their handsome escorts to the 1954 prom, "Holiday for Strings."

Sparkling notes upon burgandy-colored staffs of music covered the gymnasium walls, and everywhere were stringed instruments to carry out the musical motif.

Leading the Grand March were Tom Haller, junior class president and Gerald Rutkiewicz, vice-president and their dates—Marilyn DeAngelis and Pat Boe.

Two more couples who enjoyed the dance were Jeanne Bjorkman, Gerald Stonich and Janice Day and Al Pell.

Marilyn DeAngelis and Tom Haller join Marjorie Mathers and Frank Ogren in honoring the Queen and King of the prom, Donna Ingersoll and Don Caneva.

Assemblies and Pep Sessions

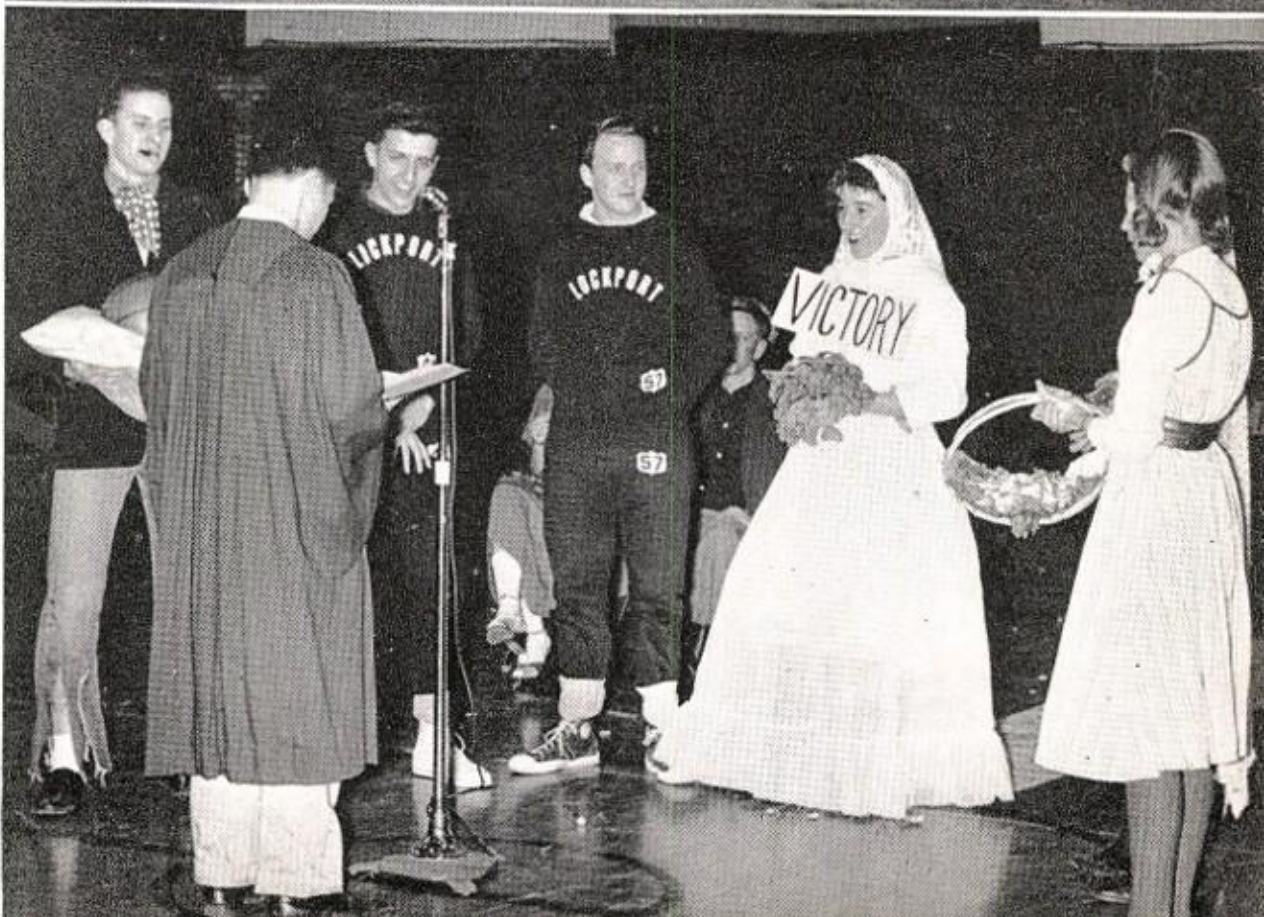

Santa Claus (George Smith) and Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer (Jeanne Bjorkman) present Bob VanDeven with a date certificate as his gift at the Christmas pep session. Gifts for the other players ranged from a bottle of Sloan's Liniment to a deflated basketball.

Dan Tynor, portraying Abraham Lincoln in the annual Lincoln Day Program, greets a neighbor, played by Carene Erwin. The play presented that day featured highlights in the life of Lincoln.

During the pep session for the Thornton game Victory (Simon Vancia) and Lockport (Harold Werth) were united by Bill Weems in a mock wedding ceremony. Incidentally we won that game 23-14.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1955, being of sound mind and heart, do hereby bequeath, in this our last will and testament to all students of L.T.H.S., the chance of learning, making new friends, and preparing for life in our alma mater.

We leave to you the school, one part whose corridors are filled with the lingering memories of her past students and another part whose corridors will reflect the personalities of students to come. With the school we also leave the faculty, our friends and advisors. We know that through their desire to help young people they will guide and inspire you as they have us.

Included in the studies and hard work, we wish for you the fun and companionship of your classmates—those after school get-togethers, the friendly rivalry of the athletic games, the trying times when you and your "buddies" burn the midnight oil studying together, and the fun of double dates.

Our will ends with this thought—We hope that the ideas of loyalty, thoughtfulness, honesty, and service will always remain characteristic of all students of Lockport High.
